Marshfield Holds First Free Dental Clinic in Wisconsin

“Lord, what am I going to do?” prayed Julie Fuehrer, one of the guests at the Marshfield Free Dental Clinic. Julie was on Medicare and desperately needed oral surgery which she could not afford and her insurance would not cover. She contacted several dental clinics, but the cost was always way more than she could afford.

Then Julie heard a radio interview with a dentist, Dr. Randy Griffin, and the local Adventist pastor, Joseph Pericellia on Wisconsin Rapids Adventist Radio (WRAO FM). “I couldn’t believe it,” said Julie. “They were offering free dental care!” She heard the interview several times over the next couple of days and each time she found herself exclaiming, “Really! Really! Nobody does anything for free!” She could hardly believe it, but felt sure this was from the Lord; a direct answer to her prayer.

The first day of the clinic, Julie, along with nearly 100 others, arrived early to get in line. After receiving her free oral care she was overjoyed. “They did it for me,” said Julie with her lopsided gauze filled smile. Then she teasingly added, “I told them to give me a face-lift while they were at it, but obviously Julie with Pastor Pericellia following her oral surgery. Julie lives in Wisconsin Rapids, and says her favorite radio station is Wisconsin Rapids Adventist Radio because “it is so true to what the Bible actually says.” Julie is holding a picture made especially for her by children of volunteer workers.

I didn’t get it. Guess I’ll have to wait for heaven for that.” Julie was delighted to meet Dr. Randy Griffin and Pastor Pericellia who had conducted the radio interview she heard. Pastor Pericellia has made arrangements to meet Julie in the near future and let her share her story on the radio. She is also interested in learning more about the Adventist church.

Many people on fixed incomes drove from as far as two hours away to avail themselves of this free dental service. They heard about it from friends, read about it in the newspaper, and saw posters in post offices and workplaces. A taxi cab driver who came said he was complaining about his toothache to a customer he was transporting, and the customer told him about the free clinic. One lady said someone from the welfare office told her about it. A school bus driver said he heard about it from kids talking about a free dental clinic on his bus route.

Volunteer Jim Parish visited with a man who had experienced several recent deaths in his family. When it was time for his dental care, Jim handed him a GLOW tract. As the man read the title, “Where is God When I’m Hurting,” tears welled up in his eyes. “If you want to

Question of the week

WHAT ARE THINGS YOU LOOK FORWARD TO WHEN YOU GET TO HEAVEN?

When I get to heaven...? What a big thing to ponder for such a small mind as mine! How do you really sum up your question to heaven when we have such a big and great God! However, I will give it a try! When I get to heaven I look forward to being with Jesus and having my mountain high of questions answered! I look forward to having explanations as to why we have the Duckbill Platypus! I look forward to knowing what kind of fish actually swallowed Jonah! I will want to know what locust and honey actually tasted like to John. My mind goes crazy gaining answers to all the stories in the Bible that I can only imagine right now! And I guess besides Jesus, I very much look forward to meeting

Jeremiah and asking him all about the things in his ministry that we cannot read about. His never ending commitment to ministry is so intriguing! So to sum it all up, I look forward to everything about heaven!

Eric Chavez
Wisconsin Conference Youth Director

First, I am looking forward to seeing Jesus face to face and thanking Him for His patience with me and for covering my sins with His robe of righteousness. I am looking forward to having loved ones and friends back whom are currently asleep in Jesus. Finally, I look forward to experiencing nature as He created it, unstained from sin.

Brian Stephan
Wisconsin Conference Treasurer

BIBLE ENIGMA 1

We're no good if we're narrow/
That's why we're fat, you know/
We'll guard your blood and marrow/
And even though we're slow/
We'll catch a flying arrow/
Or spears assassins throw/
Once a raiding Pharaoh/
Stole us from his foe

Hint: 2 Chronicles 12

BIBLE ENIGMA 2

I saw men crucified/I missed it when they died/
But after that the mood was surely grave/
Yet sad as that was then/
The joy came back again/
When later I woke up inside a cave

Volunteer Andras Muranyi, center, is a 16-year-old member of the Fond du Lac Church who loves being involved in community outreach projects like this. "The patients are very appreciative of the work we did," said Andras. "Really, the way God blesses us most is through our associations with people. No matter who attends, patient or caregiver, we all get a blessing for the efforts we exert."

come back to my table after your dental work, I'd be happy to pray with you," offered Jim. The man did come back. As volunteers take shifts, the man was able to visit this time with Pastor Michael Ehm. Pastor Ehm was able to pray for and share his testimony with the man and he really warmed up. Pastor Ehm invited him to join his group Bible study. They eagerly shared contact information, and plan to meet together again soon for lunch.

Obeida Ehm, one of three volunteer interpreters at the event, assisted about 12 guests with their language needs. The interpreters were able to spend extended time visiting with the people they helped, and Obeida was able to set up Bible studies with three ladies. "I enjoyed every single minute helping with this event," said Obeida.

Dr. Arlene Gayle, an Adventist Oncologist from Marshfield, led out in organizing this event, the first of its kind in Wisconsin. "It is a lot of work, but well worth it," said Arlene "We came up against some demonic forces, and we have seen how God has dispelled them all." She was also quick to say it would not have been possible without a lot of help from the great team of over 150 volunteers.

Volunteers came from all across Wisconsin to help with this two-day event. There was a place for everybody. Several young people were able to assist and gain a great experience. Grace Fitzpatrick, an 8th grader and member of the Fox Valley church said, "I've always been interested in dentistry, and as I attend the same church as

Dr. Conner, DDS, I've been even more interested. I worked with Dr. Tom and Wanda, a hygienist here. It was really cool because they let me suction, use the air and water for rinsing, mix formulas, and many other things. It was rewarding seeing people get their extractions and fillings taken care of for no cost. I want to be a missionary dentist like Dr. Conner was."

This two-day event, held May 14 and 15 in the Marshfield high school gymnasium provided services to the community valued at $55,500.

- 152 people filled out forms for dental care
- 132 People received dental care (time prohibited 20 people from receiving dental care)
- 112 X-rays were taken
- 40 fillings done
- 63 extractions completed
- 48 teeth cleanings

Dr. Randy Griffin, DDS, director of the Adventist Community Health Initiative in our Lake Union, will be holding a class here at camp meeting Tuesday at 2:15 on how to run a Free Dental Clinic. Come with your questions and learn about holding a health outreach event like this in your community.

Juanita Edge
Health Ministries Coordinator

People lined up early Sabbath morning to make sure they wouldn't miss out on being seen by a dentist when the clinic opened at 1:30 pm. The Amish community brought in buss loads of people needing dental care.
