Evangelism for Madison

Pictured above are the nine who were baptized as well as one profession of faith at the Madison Community church, following their evangelistic campaign.

As spring in 2018 began in Wisconsin, the Gospel sprang forth in the city of Madison. Through 22 sessions, spanning 31 days from April 5 to May 5, an evangelistic series was preached by Pastor Richard Halversen. The local church's pastor, Abraham Swamidass, shares his story of the evangelistic planning, leading, and reaping.

Planning and Planting Seeds
One year ago, April 2017, Pastor Abraham and the Madison Community Seventh-day Adventist church prepared to share the Gospel. To this end, they sought out a location to host the first week of the evangelistic series. The Crowne Plaza Hotel provided a prime location. God answered their prayers and the Hotel offered a rental package within their budget. Moreover, they received the first night free, extra space, and any necessary audio-visual equipment. With a location set, the church sought out a speaker.

Pastor Abraham was happy to connect with Pastor Richard and his wife Mary. Although they lived in Florida, they were willing to travel north to Wisconsin and spend the month there for evangelism. With the ministry team organized and an evangelist scheduled, the church looked to advertise to the Madison area through mail-brochures. Pastor Abraham was thankful that the series was designated as Wisconsin Conference's major sponsored evangelistic series for 2018. This encouraged the local church to advertise and invite the community to hear the Gospel.

Watering Thirsty Souls
As the time came for the series to begin many prayers were offered on behalf of the potential lives to be changed. Over the course of the opening week, 70 first-time registrants came to the hotel venue. These non-SDA visitors were greeted warmly by members of the church. Moreover, many Adventist from other churches in the area attended the series and supported the local church's volunteers.

After the first seven consecutive nights, the series switched from the hotel over to the Madison Community SDA church. Twenty-nine visitors were still intrigued, and continued attending that weekend. Over the next couple weeks, there was a regular group of twenty attendees. These twenty individuals were engaged by the Advent message. Despite the "typical drop-out rate after the first week," Pastor Abraham was hopeful that God would continue to work in the hearts of those who continued listening to the Gospel.

Reaping God's Harvest

elated when 10 people made decisions for Christ at the end of the series. Of these ten, 9 were baptized and one entered the church through profession of faith. Both pastors Halversen and Swamidass felt honored and privileged to enter the baptismal waters with these individuals. On the last weekend of the series, these baptisms took place with a Friday reception and Sabbath potluck. Families and friends attended these events and supported the 10 converts. Pastor Richard gave each new member a long-stem red rose with white baby's breath, which symbolizes "the blood of Christ" and "His robe of Righteousness." The celebration was joyful for the 10 believers, their families, and the church!

Continual Growth

In addition to the 10 converts, there are a few more individuals interested in making the decision for Christ. Pastor Abraham began a special Bible study series to answer questions on special topics with those who are still in the valley of decision. He is thankful for this opportunity and believes that they will make decisions for baptism. Also, a Wednesday-night Bible study series was started for new members. This group is studying the Book of Daniel, and it is nurturing new members.

The church has been very supportive of the evangelistic series and the subsequent Bible studies. Seeing God bless the lives of the community has been encouraging. Pastor Abraham says that he is "grateful to have had the opportunity to do the evangelism that Christ asks us to do and realize that the Holy Spirit will do the rest."

Question of the day

WHO/WHAT INSPIRES YOU SPIRITUALLY?

I was born into the UCC Church and when I was in Primary, my teacher was so on fire for Jesus. We sang 'Jesus Loves Me' and 'Jesus, Jesus my precious Jesus' and even at age five I was so inspired by that.

Wyatt Pratt – Rice Lake, WI

I was born and raised Jewish. In college someone gave me a New Testament to read and it was with the book of Revelation. That really inspired me when I put it together with Daniel.

Robertta Pratt – Rice Lake, WI

Seeing how God has intervened in my life and answered prayer—this builds my faith.

Rodney Hahn – Reedsburg, WI

Kids inspire me because of their honest answers.

Russ Berger – Wilson, MI

Neillsville Rocks

As you walk through camp meeting this year, keep your eyes peeled for brightly colored rocks. Find them, take a photo, post it, and hide them again in a visible location so someone else can find them. This is a great community service project started by the Neillsville SDA Company. They wanted to spread positivity and kindness in their town. It's an inexpensive way to get people together and be creative. It might be a fun thing to try in your community.

My father, he's become a Lay Minister and he inspires me because of all the work he does in the church and for the Lord.

Robert Egger – Hudson, WI

My kids inspire me when I see the joy on their faces as they hear Bible stories and then they share them with me.

Megan Elmhurst – Houghton, MI

A combination of Bible study and sermons because there is always something new I learn which inspires me to want to do more.

Nethaniah Dorh – Madison Community

Firstly, my daily devotional time with Jesus that makes me want more time with Him and secondly, the examples of Godly mentor.

Bobbi Zenner – Marshfield, WI

3 on 3 Basketball Tournament

This years tournament took place on a hot Sunday afternoon. A crowd gathered court-side to watch eight teams play in a double round robin format. Competition was tough and the midday heat was intense. Joshua Condado, from Green Bay, quipped, "It's a marathon." Despite the tough games and high temperature, he was all smiles as his team went onto the court, played well, and won their match. If you come out and play next year make sure to bring your sneakers and sunscreen.
