Cover Story Continued

JACKIE JACKSON SUSTAINED

Daily, I aim to develop the character of God which is repeated throughout Scripture and is embedded in the ten commandments. I continually strive to dwell in His secret place and to abide in Him understanding that He provides all my needs and leads me on the path of righteousness. Therefore, let us be in want for nothing, to love always, and to lean not on our own understanding so that God's most perfect work can be done in us and through us.

JACKIE JACKSON: I'M DAILY SUSTAINED BY SCRIPTURE

"The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want," Psalm 23:1. This is one of the first verses I learned and it taught me that God always provides for His followers. The message has been with me since a tender young age and continues to remind me to set my heart on God and that He will provide me with everything I need. Even now, being without work for several months, God has truly lifted these words from the pages of the Bible. I have lacked nothing during this dry spell in life and it is a daily reminder to keep my eyes on Christ. God's word has sustained me both physically and spiritually!

Jackie Jackson was baptized into the Madison East Seventh-day Adventist Church on April 7, 2012. A rock-climbing buddy invited her to church, then she attended a Prophecy Seminar. Jackie is the only Adventist in her family at this point.

God's Scripture has also influenced and molded my understanding of love to be both an emotion and a principle. One of my favorite verses in the Bible is Matthew 5:44 (NKJV) "Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you." The surrounding text of this passage informs me that it is easy to be kind to those who are kind to me but verse 44 seems to state the impractical. For example, when working for an individual as a research assistant, I encountered resistance with keeping the Sabbath and isolation in the workplace. Some colleagues were condescending and even spoke negatively about me. God's scripture instructed me to not only bring the issue to Him in prayer, but to love them! I discovered this task neither easy nor natural.

Thankfully, God constantly instructed me in these matters to "trust in the Lord with all my heart, and lean not on my own understanding; in all [my] ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct my paths." Proverbs 3:5, 6.

Moreover, I thank God for His scripture because it reveals that my walk with Christ is not to be one based on emotion. Instead, it is based on the principle of love which focuses on the salvation of every person on this planet. God's scripture discloses that my duty is to Him and to help others heavenward through the Holy Spirit. If they curse, hate, or spitefully use me, I pray for God's mercy upon them and that His Holy Spirit will change their wicked ways. I hope to show God's love to everyone I meet and to continually be filled with the Holy Spirit. This is NOT an easy task but it is the burden that God has blessed me with through the ministry of His Word. Satan desires to sift me as wheat and only earnest prayer, continual study of God's scripture, and believing Jesus Christ is my Savior can save me.

MEET OUR SPEAKERS

GARRY SUDDS

Tuesday-Wednesday 2:15 pm, Wednesday 4:00 pm

Garry Sudds is the Director of Education for the Lake Union Conference. He has a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Union College and a Master's of Science in Education from Iona College. Garry is in the process of completing a doctoral degree in Educational Leadership from Andrews University. Garry has been an assistant boys dean, chaplain, Bible teacher, principal, associate superintendent and superintendent of schools in several conferences.

Garry has been married to his wife, Joanna, for 44 years, and feels that he has been blessed abundantly because his wife loves him, his children respect him, and his six-year-old Yorkie/Shihtzu goes crazy every time he walks in the door.

The only legacy he hopes to be remembered for is: "This man was a very close friend of Jesus."

QUESTION OF THE DAY

THE BEST WAY I'VE FOUND TO FIT BIBLE STUDY IN MY BUSY LIFE IS...

Alan Carlson

Perspective. Try fitting your busy life into your Bible study, not vice versa.

Teresa Isensee Harrison

The best thing for me was joining Shaundi and Jenney's ladies study group. It holds me accountable to study, and there is something special about studying the Bible with other Christian women who have similar journeys.

Mike Edge

Study first thing in the morning, before eating breakfast.

Psalm 119: In Awe of God by Greg Edge

Psalm 119 is famous for being the longest chapter in the Bible, but it has a lot more to recommend it than mere length.

Join us in Pioneer Chapel at 4:00 pm as we explore David's meditations on God's wonderful Words of Life. Bring your Bibles.

Greg Taylor

To start each day in God's Word. Time is like money. If not budgeted it will find a place to go.

Keith Sopp

Through daily email and scripture texting.

Jean Marcel Clouzet

My smartphone.

Jean Schwark

I get up earlier than I need to for work. God wakes me up each morning because I have asked Him to.

Early Morning in the Chapel

At 6:00 am Monday, about 25 people gathered in Pioneer Chapel for Early Glow. God met them there in a powerful way as prayers, praise, and gratitude were raised. Prayers of intercession also ascended for sons, daughters, cancer, and other concerns. All are welcome to come share this precious time. The Chapel is also open each morning from 5:00 - 6:00 and 7:00 - 8:00 for private prayer and devotions.
