SHOWERS OF BLESSINGS

His inspiration and guidance. It was so deep and meaningful; it was the most joyous experience I have ever had. It's almost too hard to describe. He was there with me and the hours flew by like minutes. I did it, I talked with my Lord all night. When the dawn of a new morning peaked over the horizon, I gathered up my precious promises and left my makeshift sanctuary.

Revitalized with the sheer joy that only He can give, I walked around the campground realizing He had bestowed upon me, "showers of blessings."

If you have never taken the opportunity to spend a block of focused, uninterrupted time alone with God and His Word, I would highly recommend it. God's promise is true, "You shall seek Me, and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart," Jeremiah 29:13

Showers of Blessings in an Unlikely Place

It started one night at camp meeting. I had decided I was going to journal Scripture all night and talk to my Lord. Just God and I, alone, all night. What would I say? Where would I go? Would I be able to stay awake? I was frightened by the black night all around me. But I was determined.

As I headed out to find the perfect spot I saw a nice quiet area on the porch of the lodge. So I hastened towards the lone chair, got nestled in my blankets to keep the cool night air at bay and started to..."Excuse me, miss, you can't be here right now; it's curfew and you must go back to your campsite."

"Please, don't make me go back to my campsite. I won't make noise or be a bother, I just want to have communion with my Lord all night."

"I'm sorry ma'am, we can't allow you to do that here."

I wanted to obey and not be a problem. "Please Lord, I am determined and ready to do this, please show me where to go." I understood having to go back to my campsite. He was just doing his job. However, I had a mission I was bound and determined to carry out that night...but how, Lord?

As I took the long route

"home" and slowly came upon my campsite I was impressed to go to the shower house. "Really Lord? The showers?" The impression was steady and strong so that is where I headed. It was quiet and desolate there, all except for one lady who was just finishing up. I had a casual conversation with her and then she left.

Suddenly, it was me and the sound of a lone June bug bouncing off the light. I was all alone.

I looked at the cement walls surrounding me and in faith I proceeded by setting a blanket, my tablet and my Bible on a bench in the shower house waiting area. I borrowed a shower stool and set that up as my chair. I took a deep breath and suddenly I had this perfect "hiding place" to journal Scripture and talk with my Lord all night long. And that is what I did.

As I prayed specifically, one by one for my family, my pen just flowed claiming Scripture with

Ellen G. White Devotional Thought
KEEP BIBLE WITH YOU

There is but little benefit derived from a hasty reading of the Scriptures. One may read the whole Bible through, and yet fail to see its beauty or comprehend its deep and hidden meaning.

One passage studied until its significance is clear to the mind, and its relation to the plan of salvation is evident, is of more value than the perusal of many chapters with no definite purpose in view and no positive instruction gained.

Keep your Bible with you. As you have opportunity, read it; fix the texts in your memory. Even while you are walking the streets, you may read a passage, and meditate upon it, thus fixing it in the mind.

Question of the Day
THE THING THAT FASCINATES ME MOST ABOUT GOD'S CREATION IS...

Alan Carlson
How perfectly interdependent it is. Better than any jig-saw puzzle.

Greg Taylor
The way it connects us to God. It is difficult to explain, but somehow when I am able to spend time in prayer at the ocean or in the woods there is just something so peaceful about it. Those are my favorite prayer times.

Jean Schwark
The seasons. I love how the world goes from brown and drab to green and beautiful.

Bert Wredberg
Are you tired of hearing that the Bible can't be true? Have you wondered if there is any evidence indicating that Scripture is history as well as theology?

Come and spend an hour in the Pioneer Chapel as we take a quick survey through some of the evidences God has provided that give us additional confidence that His Word is true and can be trusted.

Jean-Marcel Clouzet
The complementing mystery, perfection and beauty of male + female.

Mike Edge
How God controls the stars and planets all the way down to micro-organisms, yet is still interested in my personal life.

Tammi Baker
God's under-sea creatures. I've been snorkeling in Jamaica, Hawaii, and Barados, and it's beautiful! I loved it. I'm also fascinated with rocks. Can't wait till heaven to learn more about them.

Teen Theme: All About Jesus
The teen department is asking their youth to submit questions they have about God and living a Christian life. At first, 2 or 3 sent in their written questions. Now 50 or more are coming in daily. Most questions have to do with the reality of living for Jesus in such a secular world. Monday night there was an altar call and 2/3 of the teens came forward desiring to know more about Jesus. Please keep them in your prayers.
