LIVING THE MISSION FROM MY HOSPITAL BED

Kris Guido and her husband, Dan, live and witness for Jesus in Green Bay, WI.

I am blessed with a job working for the Salvation Army. Part of my work includes providing transportation for senior citizens in Green Bay. Monday, April 9th, I found myself short of breath, with extreme muscle pain and no volunteer to drive the bus. I determined to finish this bus trip with the Lord's help, but as I did, my breathing and muscle pain worsened. I made an appointment to see my doctor the next day.

Three days later, after hours of testing, the oncologist met with Dan and I to discuss the next steps in diagnosing what type of lymphoma I had.

Next, Dr. Keller, the surgeon, consulted with us. He wanted to take a biopsy of a lymph node, from my right side, under my arm. He explained to us that several nerves surround the lymph node, and damaging a nerve would limit muscle control of my right arm.

Before the surgery, we prayed with Pastor Bill Ochs, and our friend, Mark Ringwelski for the Lord to guide Dr. Keller's hands. I was not afraid, for I know a mighty Physician.

After surgery, Dr. Keller told us he removed four lymph nodes. His eyes lit up as he explained the nerves were nowhere to be seen. I looked him in the eye and smiled. "That's because Jesus was holding the nerves back for you." I said. "You performed surgery with God's hand next to yours."

Throughout my treatment I have been in and out of the hospital or clinic. I've met several nurses, therapists and doctors. I share the love and joy of Jesus with every caregiver who I come in contact with.

I have chosen to trust God, claiming His promise that "Perfect love casteth out fear" John 4:18.

Worry would only draw attention to the disease, infect my mind and cloud my thoughts so that I couldn't see Jesus clearly. I want to magnify God, sharing His loving mercy and peace.

Kris Guido

MEET OUR SPEAKERS

JOHN MATHEWS

Morning Speaker - 11:00

John Mathews is the Stewardship Director for the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventist.

He is a graduate of Southern Adventist University and holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Andrews University.

John is an ordained minister who has a passion for teaching stewardship principles, especially as they relate to the spirituality of money management in the postmodern culture. He often conducts family finance seminars.

John is married to Janice Schram Mathews, MSN, a Nurse Practitioner. They have one married daughter, Angela, and are proud grandparents. He enjoys hiking, running, playing the guitar, singing country gospel concerts, and sleeping late in the morning.

Youth Prayer Groups

“We prayed with a lady at the pavilion,” said Jessica, who has been attending the Youth meetings this week and joined one of the four prayer groups roaming the campus Tuesday. “This lady was so excited because her grandkids are here for the first time this year,” Jessica continued. “Her grandson is going to be baptized on Sabbath.”

A Family Refreshed

Growing up in Wisconsin, camp meeting has always been a part of Matthew and Cathy Anderson’s life.

“We come every year knowing we can expect a blessing. God is always here. This year has been even better because our two-year-old son is with us. Camp meeting is a deeply spiritual time when our family can come and be refreshed.”

Camp Meeting 2012

BY THE NUMBERS

96 kids ages 10-12 attended Junior swim time on Monday.

1,304 times the camp meeting page of the Wisconsin Conference website has been viewed in the past 9 days. Audio of main meetings and Camp Lamp issues are posted daily. wi.adventist.org

70 kids ages 4-6 are attending the Kindergarten meetings on a regular basis. No one is too young to begin “Living the Mission”.

BIBLE ENIGMA 1

I’m not a nut, but some nuts came from me/That miracle Korah couldn’t quite see/I was in hand till I finally reclined/To sleep in an ark that nobody can find.

BIBLE ENIGMA 2

You can’t hold me in your hands, but your hands hold my signs/You won’t hear me singing, but my ring is in the pines/Some have raced me, others waste me/Those who heed God’s call.../Can never have the me they’ve missed, yet they can have my all.

Ladies Exercise Class

Each morning at 8 am over 40 women join Marie Lopez on the basketball court for 30 minutes of strength training exercises.

Bring a towel and join the fun!

Camp Meeting DVD Outreach

Over 2,400 DVD’s and CD’s are produced during camp meeting each year.

“This ministry is exciting because it reaches beyond camp meeting,” said John Strehle, director of the video capture department. “These sermons are used throughout the conference. With the online MP3’s, these messages can reach around the globe.”

Question of the Day

HOW DO YOU REACH OUT TO PEOPLE IN YOUR COMMUNITY?

Aileen King

I vote, participate in community meetings, get involved in hospital walk-a-thons. I joined Curves partly to get acquainted with local people.

Donna Hubert

I like to visit people who are shut-ins or have been hospitalized. I invite people I know to events at church.

Bob Sachse

We provide land on which people in the community can come plant a garden. Several Hmong people grow food there.

Caryn Erb

We go caroling at Christmas and take gifts to our neighbors like jam, sweet rolls, GLOW tracts, etc. We invite people over for supper, games, or bonfires.

Burnadette Doran

I volunteer in school to help kids read.

Deidra Olsen

At the bank or grocery store, I always ask people how they are doing, and wish them a good day. I’m amazed at the amount of friends I’ve made this way.

Grace Absorbs Camp Meeting

Grace Hixon, age 5, attends Kindergarten class in the daytime, and adult meetings each evening with her grandmother, Maurine.

Last night Grace listed important Bible words that came to her mind during the meeting. At the bottom of the page she wrote, “Living the Mission” with an arrow below it.

Red Hat Society Fundraiser

Ladies and gentlemen of all ages met Monday for food, fun, fellowship and to support Adventist education. They raised money for the Rhinelander SDA School and presented it to Charlotte Kohley, principal.

Next year’s event proceeds will help support Lena Maranatha SDA school.
