

Camp Meeting

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Trust Services

Who really needs estate planning anyways? The answer is simple, everyone. Whether you are a parent, a property owner, or a professional, you need to protect your family and assets. No estate is too small for planning. Make an appointment in the administration office today to speak to Trust Director Cindy Stephan. She will be happy to help you reach your estate planning goals.

Family Life

Family Life Advisory Committee will meet today at 5:30 pm in the Fireside conference room. Supper will be provided. Title for today's seminar is "How to Forgive... When you Don't Feel Like It." Forgiveness is central to Christian faith. But the call to forgive can have a darker side for victims of injustice and trauma. Meeting will be held in Cabin #4 at 4:00 pm. Anyone can come and sign up for today's free drawing from 1:00 - 2:30 pm. Five names will be drawn from the basket.

ABC Thursday Specials

15% off regularly priced cookbooks and health books.

Little Red School House

Stop by the school house today at 5:00 pm for a special drawing.

Shuttle Service

If you need shuttle assistance from your site to meetings, contact Robyn at 262-745-7063 for shuttle service.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed to put on metal roofs on some of the older cabins. If you are interested in helping out, turn in your name and contact info to the administration office.

Camp Store

Our super sale on Tuesday went so well it has allowed for more space to add brand new merchandise! Stop by to check it out!

Meal Tickets

All meal tickets need to be purchased at information or locating in the administration office.

NO tickets will be sold during the Sabbath hours. Please purchase your Sabbath tickets prior to sundown on Friday evening.

Andrews University Cabin Hours

Monday - Friday
8:30 - 9:15 am
10:30 - 12:00 noon
1:00 - 5:00 pm

And following the evening meetings until 10:00 pm. Stop by to learn about educational opportunities, scholarships, or to schedule a visit.

Earn an Honor This Week

Pathfinders, stop by the Pathfinder cabin and pick up an Honor Kit, between 1:00 and 3:00 pm all week. Honor Kits available include Braiding (beginning and advanced), Origami, and Felt Craft. (A small fee is necessary for supplies).

Fireside Lodge Cafeteria

THURSDAY'S MENU

BREAKFAST

Fruit Muffins • Boiled Eggs • Prosage • Malt-O-Meal

LUNCH

Spaghetti • "Meat Balls" • Marinara Sauce • Eggplant • Garlic Bread • Boccoli • Corn

SUPPER

Potato Bar • Gravy • Broccoli • Mushroom/Onion • Chili • Cheese Sauce

Revived By His Word

TODAY'S READING

"May my prayer be set before You like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice."
Psalm 141:2

Weather Forecast

FOR THURSDAY

Daytime	Nighttime
Few Showers 20% precip	Partly Cloudy 20% precip
78° HIGH	54° LOW

Subject to change without notice

Previous Enigma Answers

Enigma 1: Blood
Enigma 2: Anchor

CAMP LAMP

Thursday, June 23

None Are Beyond God's Reach

Bernadette Doran, member of the Green Bay Church, has driven school bus for 17 years. She loves working with children and has led Vacation Bible School and children's Sabbath School for over 30 years. Bernadette lives with her husband Joe, in Seymore, WI, and they have two grown sons.

I am a special needs bus driver for the public school system in our town. This year I was given a tough bus route that the previous driver from last year refused to ever do again. I knew I would need God's help.

In the first month of school the police were called twice to assist. It was a tough route, with swearing, fighting, and disobedience. One boy would bolt out the bus door while it was moving. A second grader refused to do anything he was asked and was regularly harnessed. It really was a challenge.

I began praying out loud at the beginning of each bus route, and again after the last child was off. I would sing praises to God for His help like, "Come Holy Spirit, We Need You." I prayed a lot for God to help me, for I simply could not afford to get upset. Day by day Jesus has given me the strength to stay calm!

All the busses have camera's in them, and the school took the film out and watched what happened on the bus twice that I know of. Half-way through the year, one of the teachers who saw the films told me she was praying for me.

Every day I continued to pray

both silently and out loud while on the bus. I would also sing Sabbath School songs like "Be Kind to Each Other" while we drove along. As the year progressed the children stopped swearing, calling bad names, getting out of their seats, or hurting others. Some even started playing nicely together. The boy who often bolted out the door doesn't do that anymore, and the little second grader knows what is expected of him and no longer needs to be harnessed while riding the bus. One day I really felt blessed to have a student invite me to his home for his graduation party.

Other bus drivers have noticed the difference in the kids riding my bus. One bus driver asked me to pray for him because he could see God's answers to my prayers. We never know who is watching.

These are worldly kids I work with, and they have many special needs, but they are not beyond the reach of our heavenly Father's love and care. What a privilege to be able to pray and witness for our Lord!

MEET OUR SPEAKERS

MAURICE VALENTINE

Evening Meetings 7:30 pm

Trained in conflict management and church growth, Valentine served as an evangelistic, retreat, convention, commencement, camp meeting and pastors' meeting speaker/presenter. From the East Coast to the West, he has trained over 500 church leaders in strategic leadership and planning for growth.

Valentine's administrative leadership was honed while serving as Ministerial Director and Vice President for Administration (Executive Secretary) of the Mid America Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in Lincoln, Nebraska.

For the past 30 years Elder Valentine has been married to the love of his life, Sharon, and together they have had the esteemed privilege of launching into adult life three children. Their journeys in pastoral ministry have covered five states and eleven churches.

BIBLE ENIGMA 1

The Bible oft mentions the Red Sea/As well as the salty old Dead Sea/It speaks much of four/Galilee and one more/Can you name the final unsaid sea?

Kevin Wilkinson

BIBLE ENIGMA 2

Do alot with a little/In jot and in tittle/With me, Bible writers were deft/But from Aleph to Tav/My characters have/A penchant to go right to left.

Kevin Wilkinson

Answers on back page of tomorrow's Camp Lamp. Clues on administration reader-board.

KIDS WEED NATURE CENTER GARDEN

If you want to see kids pull weeds, and smile while doing it, visit the Nature Center around 4:45 each day. Kids are helping prepare a garden patch that will grow a variety of vegetables and flowers throughout the summer.

"It's looking amazing," says Nature Center Director Jenny Wheeler, pointing to the beds and walking paths carefully lined with stones. "Yesterday it was full of weeds, but look at it now." Jenny hopes that helping in the garden will help kids understand how different kinds of plants grow, and possibly check off requirements for Pathfinder honors. She thinks eventually it would be fun to see produce from the garden patch used in the cafeteria.

Camp Meeting 2016

BY THE NUMBERS

100,000 feet was the height the Wisconsin Academy weather balloon reached following it's launch.

29.3% of our members in the Wisconsin Conference are over 60 years young.

130 people were baptized in Wisconsin last year. Let's set a goal to tell even more people about Jesus this year!

17 people ran in the Lake to Lake run this year.

Over a dozen kids helped out today, and seemed to have a great time. The offer of free sno-cones for those who help certainly sweetens the deal.

The Youth Instructor March 19, 1963

GOD'S INSTRUMENT

The church service was over that Sabbath morning, and I had gathered my family into the car and started toward home. At the corner I saw Mrs. Nilsen and the non-Adventist friend whom she had brought to church that morning waiting for the bus. I should offer to take them home, I said to myself. Mrs. Nilsen is a widow and she is no longer young, and her meager earnings don't cover any luxuries. But I'm in a hurry today so I won't bother.

Against my intentions, when I reached the corner I stopped the car and called, "Would you like a ride home?" "Why--why yes," Mrs. Nilsen exclaimed, and her whole countenance burst into smiles as she motioned to her friend to get into my car.

The next Sabbath at church Mrs. Nilsen handed me an envelope containing fifty cents. "I want to give you this for taking us home last Sabbath," she said. "Oh, no!" I said. "I won't accept it." "Please take it," she pleaded. I must pay you. That ride was an answered prayer."

I looked at her, not understanding. Then she continued, "We were standing there waiting for the bus, and I reached into my handbag to get the bus fare. It suddenly came to me that when I dropped my offering into the plate I forgot that I must keep back enough money for our bus fare. I closed my eyes and prayed, 'Dear God, what can I do? I can't ask my guest to pay

Question of the Day

WHAT IS ONE HABIT YOU WOULD LOVE TO BREAK, OR WOULD REALLY LOVE TO BUILD?

Justin Dane Spady

I still would like to build the habit of a weekly Bible study in my home. Everytime I try to start that habit something comes up or the people I invite have to back out.

Miranda Wredberg

Build good work ethic.

Alan Carlson

I would like to build the kind of closeness Enoch had with God.

Nancy Wood

I want to build my faith in Jesus that He cares for even little things in my life.

Story Continued...

our fare home.' And just about that time you came along. You were the answer to my prayer."

"I'm so glad I could help you," I said, "and I will not take payment for it." All that Sabbath day her words, "You were the answer to my prayer," kept ringing in my ears.

But a stinging rebuke is mixed with those words. I had decided I was in a hurry and wasn't going to take them home. Ordinarily with such a thought in mind I would have driven right on by without sopping. Now I wonder. How many times has my thoughtlessness led me to fail God when He wanted to use me in answering someone's prayer?

By: Mavis Finch

Audra O'Brien

Break mid-day snacking.

Joan Carlson

I want to build a deepening trust in God that successfully withstands any trial.

Alisha Cunningham

Want to break impatience.

Lori Nelson

Increase my prayer time to remember to go to God first.

Sarah Hillebert

I would like to build the habit of more scheduled and spontaneous "family time."

Rahel Schafer Junior Speaker

Assistant professor of Biblical Studies at Andrews University, Rahel is passionate about God's Word and God's world. She has completed graduate degrees in religion and biology, and a Ph.D. at Wheaton College. Rahel's great honor and joy is to inspire her students to discover the beauty and depth of Biblical truth for themselves. She loves leading her church's Pathfinder club and youth group, as well as backpacking and climbing mountains.