Meet Josh Jeresek

On Monday, 133 people crammed into the small ceramics room in the basement of Cedar Lodge to hear Josh Jeresek present his seminar entitled "Natural Home Remedies." People were sitting on the floor, on tables, and standing in doorways, as he demonstrated natural ways to health.

Josh's interest in health began years ago. Josh Jeresek developed a strong interest in health food as a young man. Not knowing the Lord, he sought connection with the Rastafarian movement.

As Josh kept seeking a deeper spiritual walk, God led him one Sabbath to the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Winona, MN. Paul Hefty of the Winona Church then began a friendship with Josh and his fiancée Emily. Josh and Emily became intrigued by the Adventist health message. On January 18, 2003, they were baptized. "The Winona church was a very loving and embracing church," Josh shared. "They loved Emily and me into the truth. They were patient with us, answered our questions and just loved us." Shortly after being baptized, Josh and Emily were married.

In 2007, Josh attended the ARISE institute in Michigan and was trained as a Bible worker. In 2008, he became a Bible worker for the Stevens Point SDA Church. The church grew. "Stevens Point was a great experience. It was the best job I ever had. I learned a lot about life and ministry there."

In late 2009, Josh read a quote in The Ministry of Healing that tugged on his heart. It read, "Every person should have a knowledge of nature's remedial agencies and how to apply them" (pg. 127). In 2010, Josh felt a greater call to engage in medical missionary training. Josh trained at Uchee Pines and is now a lifestyle educator. "My wife Emily and I wanted this type of training for a long time, but debt kept us from pursuing the medical missionary training. But God was leading. We were soon out of debt and on our way to Uchee Pines. We went there to be healthy ourselves and wanted others to learn to be healthy from what we would share."

After 133 people attended his seminar on Monday. Josh said, "I was humbled by how many people came to hear about the right arm of the gospel. The Lord let me know that it had nothing to do with me but that it was all about the information that people came to learn." Josh's final seminar will be held on Friday at 4pm in Fireside Lodge.

Your Favorite Thing About Camp Meeting...

Going to Junior class. We get to listen to stories people tell us.

Rayna Silverstein

Going swimming. I like the camp store stuffed animals.

Jazmin Garrott

The meetings. They inspire me! Don Schneider got to me!

Wayne & Genevieve Clark

Fellowshipping with church family and friends.

Britni Conrad

I get to go to Kindergarten.

Tess Navalon

I like swimming in the pond.

Kayla and Katherine Isensee

James Fox's continued stories in Primary.

Tyler Hillebert

Crafts in Primary.

Ben Burger

Freezie pops in the ABC.

Caleb Briel

I have been coming to Wisconsin Camp Meeting at least 60 years. It is always a spiritual retreat, As a girl I met my late husband here. It is a highlight of my summers.

Mary Ross

The meetings, vacation, family. It's a big thing for our family. We all come, and we all visit with friends. It's a treasure!

Sandy Magray

I just love camp meeting so much. Home is just not going to be the same anymore.

Jack Jordan age 4

Don Schneider's sermons were tremendous. Very practical. Just exactly what I needed to hear. The meetings are so good it helps you put up with the rain.

Memorial Service

Clavia Nelson Lane, a long time attendee of Wisconsin camp meeting and former Wisconsin Academy staff member, died this past December. A graduate of Bethel Academy in 1934, Clavia later worked at Wisconsin Academy for more than twenty year, first as the school nurse and later as the girls' dean.

When she left WA, the dorm girls gave her a Bible, that was signed by each girl. One of their comments reflected the impact that Clavia had on so many lives, "We appreciate the love and kindness that you have shown to each and every one of us. You were like a second mother. You have so much love to give and openly showed it."

Both Al and Clavia touched many lives through their years of service. At camp meeting, their site was like a magnet for students and people they worked with. The Lanes attended Wisconsin camp meeting, camping in the same site from the first year the campground opened. The site has been in the family for three generations, currently being used by their granddaughter.

A memorial service for Clavia will be held on Monday, June 27, at 1:00 p.m. in the Clear Lake SDA church.

Kindergarten Friends of Jesus!

"Are you a friend of Jesus?" That was the question asked this morning in Kindergarten. The resounding answer of "YEESSSS!" was loud enough to shake the windows.

Every day in our class we have some special visitors that come to tell us about Heroes for Jesus. We've learned about Moses and Dorcas and how they were Jesus' friends. Today we learned about the little lad who shared his lunch with Jesus. Because he was willing to share the small amount he had, he was able to see Jesus power in the form of a miracle as his little lunch fed 5,000 men!

We may be small and we may only have a little to give to Jesus, but He can turn it into a blessing for many. We love Jesus and want to be His friend. How about you? Are you a friend of Jesus?
