CAMP LAMP

Sabbath June 18, 2011

Meet Don Schneider

Our first weekend speaker for camp meeting 2011 is Elder Don Schneider, former president of the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists. Don is passionate about sharing what it means to know Jesus, share Jesus, and live for Jesus.

Born in Merrill, Wisconsin, Don's parents took Bible studies from the head elder of the local Seventh-day Adventist Church. After going through all 28 lessons, mom and dad Schneider were not ready to commit.

Yet, that faithful Adventist head elder just wouldn't give up on the family. He kept coming back, even though it looked as if it might do no good at all. For a second time he started right at the beginning and studied all 28 Bible lessons with them. That is when they started going to church. "I'm glad that he kept coming to see us," says Don in his book, One Heart Rejoicing. "We may have looked worthless to some people, but not to that elder, and not to Jesus, either."

Within a few months of joining the Adventist church, Don's parents enrolled him in the local church school. "My teacher helped me to grow in Jesus," remembers Don. "My senior year at Wisconsin Academy is when I made my personal decision. I remember kneeling beside my bed in room 139 of the old boy's dorm and it was there that I gave my life to Jesus."

Don has served the Lord as a pastor, youth director, conference president, union president and recently retired after serving 10 years as president of the North American Division. He is currently interim pastor of the Denver South SDA Church in Colorado. He also continues to host a 60-minute weekly show, Really Living, on Hope TV. "It's all ministry," says Don. "You do different things and deal with different topics, but the thrust is still the same, telling people about Jesus."

Don wants to be an encourager who affirms the importance of those who feel worthless. He wants to love wandering sheep back into the fold. "Stop griping about the defects in Christ's bride, the church, and start working to increase the groom's market share over the devil," says Don. "Become a member of the Aaron and Hur club, and hold up the hands of the leaders. Dispense the medicine of prayer and the balm of caring, and watch people get happy that you are alive."

Scripture Enigma

Five hundred begins it; five hundred ends it;
 And five in the middle is seen;
 The first of all letters, the first of all numbers,
 Have taken their stations between;
 And if you correctly this medley can spell,
 The name of an ancient king it will tell.
 Who am I?

Camp Meeting: Beginner through Young Adult

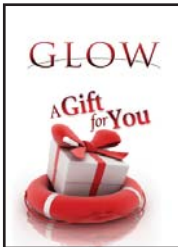

Beginners - The theme this year is “Heaven” in the morning and “Noah’s Ark” in the afternoon. Hand-outs for parents will be available at each meeting. This handout is provided to encourage parents of beginner-age children.

Kindergarten - The theme this year is “Heroes for God.” We will learn about heroes in the Bible such as Moses, Dorcas, Little Maid, and Jesus. We will also learn how we can be heroes for God. We will have crafts each day. Come enjoy a fun and faith-filled week with your wonderful Kindergarten camp meeting friends!

Primary - The theme this year is “Revival and Reformation”. We have reformers coming to visit every night. Tuesday and Thursday we are doing community service. Monday, Wednesday and Friday we will be doing crafts. The Science Lady will be coming again in the morning. The primary children will be singing for the adults and young adults Thursday evening in Pioneer Pavilion.

Juniors - The theme this year is “Who Am I?” Tuesday is our annual water olympics. Crafts are planned Monday through Friday after the junior meeting. Every afternoon we will be doing a snack art craft — making something fun to eat.

Anyone Can GLOW

Giving Light to Our World (GLOW) is a simple literature distribution program in which everyone can be successful. Keep GLOW tracts with you, share them with people or leave them places, then pray for the Holy Spirit to impress hearts.

Here’s a what can happen when people start leaving GLOW tracts around. One man found a GLOW tract on the state of the dead in a barbecue grill in the local Orchards store. He read it, and wrote in for Bible studies saying the tract was very informative and he wanted more literature like that.

For more information about how to get involved and share your faith, stop by the communication cabin this week.

Teen - The theme this year is “Jesus Revealed”. We will be going through the entire book of Revelation. A prayer walk through camp is planned for each Sabbath. Thursday we will go Noah’s Ark water park.

Youth - The theme this year is “NU Generation Revival”. (NU stands for never underestimate). We will be doing community service on Wednesday, Noah’s Ark water park Thursday, and having a concert on Friday.

Young Adult - The theme this year is “Survival for Revival” with guest speaker Jim Zeismer.

Camp Meeting Speakers Perspectives

Don Livesay

What is the greatest strength of our Adventist church at this time?

“We have a wonderful church. We have a good organization and millions of committed, dedicated people that make this work.”

“Our message, hands down. We have a life-transforming, Christ-centered, holistic message the world is actually searching for.”

“I believe it is the prophetic role and mission we have in this world. The moment we lose our mission, we get into problems.”

“We have the clearest understanding of any group of people in the world, of what God’s will is in the Bible.”

What is the greatest opportunity we have available as a church today?

“There are millions of people today who don’t know Jesus. They need to know Him, and we need to tell them.”

“The world is asking questions only SDAs can answer comprehensively. Millions of people in America who could join the remnant church are looking for answers. The question is, can they find us?”

“Our Seventh-day Adventist message. When people really understand our end-time message it makes all the difference in their lives.”

“Revival and reformation. To go deep with the Lord. To experience primitive Godliness that was part of the early church and that is so important for us today.”

What is the greatest weakness our church presently faces?

“Ever since Jesus was here, we’ve had the struggle of keeping excited about the gospel. And along the way we do lose some people.”

“We’re distracted with lesser things; business, entertainment, the world in general.”

“We need to stick to the Bible. It can be easy to believe what other people say about the Bible rather than studying it for ourselves.”

“We just need more unity. The shaking is clearly taking place on all spectrums of the church. We have to stay together.”

Offering Opportunities

Camp meeting time brings with it many wonderful opportunities for worship, prayer and fellowship. It can also be a reflective time as we look at how the Lord has intervened and worked in our lives over the past year.

Offerings are an opportunity to respond to God in thankfulness to Him for what He has done. Camp meeting offerings provide several different ministries to support. Envelopes have been provided if you wish to receive a contribution receipt. Please make checks payable to the Wisconsin Conference of SDA. You may give your offering during the services listed or come to the treasury office. We’d love to talk with you.

Prayerfully consider how you may bless God’s work as you worship Him through your giving of love offerings to Him this camp meeting. Your support of God’s church is appreciated.

“Give to the Lord the glory due His Name; bring an offering, and come into His Courts.” Ps. 96:8 NKJV
