A Grateful Heart Gives Hope for the Future

What is my faith secret? Gratitude. I am grateful for my God-fearing parents who first introduced me to the Bible. I am grateful for the period of poverty when a stove showed up just in time to fill the vacant spot. God sent His love.

I am grateful for scholarships to go to college. I am grateful that after three years, I lost all those scholarships. God let me know that success is only through Him.

I am grateful for my beloved husband who was willing to marry a college dropout. I am grateful for the doctors telling me I was not likely to get pregnant. I am grateful that I completed a degree in special education, discovered foster care and emotionally disturbed children, delinquent teenagers, and disabled children and then developmentally disabled adults. I am grateful I gave birth to three sons. God let me know that He is in charge of my life and I can trust Him totally.

I am grateful for God leading me to the Seventh-day Adventist church. What freedom I found in learning so many more truths in the Bible. How grateful I am for the writings of Ellen White, especially for her messages on healthy living. God truly has something better for us!

Dr. Carol and Steve Mertins are members at Lake Mills Mission, they have 3 boys and 8 grandchildren. Carol is executive director/nurse practitioner at a free clinic for the uninsured in Watertown, Wisconsin.

I am grateful for my degree as a registered nurse, then nurse practitioner. I am grateful I was hired to create and operate a free clinic in Watertown. God showed me He had a special plan for my life and every experience, good and bad, has given me the skills necessary to do the job. He has shown me when a job is too big for me that He provides in miraculous ways, and will walk beside me to do His work. Watching Him work is such a faith booster!

I am grateful for my son's autoimmune disease and the answers God has so graciously provided. I have come to realize that our every breath is sustained by our loving Heavenly Father and I can trust Him.

I am grateful to the God-fearing friends that He has provided for me in every stage of life who help me to keep my eyes ever on Him.

I am grateful for my three God-fearing sons and daughters-in-law and my eight grandchildren. God has shown Himself trustworthy. I do not know what the future holds, but I know who holds the future and I am grateful.

Hitchhiker Finds Camp Meeting

As Chris Chung, employee of Remnant Publications, drove through Chicago to camp meeting, he felt impressed to pick up a hitchhiker walking along Hwy 90. The hitchhiker, Aaron agreed to come to Wakonda with Chris, attended Young Adult's Friday night, and even ate a few meals in the cafeteria. "That vegetarian food is good," commented Aaron. Chris sent him on his way Sabbath with a Great Controversy.

Renewed Hope in 1850

"I dreamed last night that I was studying a prophecy chart with Brother Rhodes," Holcomb remarked to his wife. "It reminded me of our wonderful Bible study sessions before our disappointment in 1844."

"That was a terrible experience," she replied. "I'm so glad we are far away in Wisconsin now." Suddenly Halcomb heard a familiar voice approaching. "What are you doing here in Wisconsin, Brother Holcomb?"

Rhodes was spending the summer of 1850 traveling through the west to bring the Third Angel's Message to disheartened Advent believers.

"Remember how thoroughly we studied Revelation 14 back east," said Rhodes, as he unrolled a chart. "Let me tell you what we've discovered about the Third Angel's Message."

"That's the very chart I saw in my dream last night," exclaimed Holcomb. "God has surely sent you." They spent the night studying, and the following day Rhodes baptized four of the family in Lake Pleasant, WI.

Question of the Day
WHAT IS YOUR CHURCH DOING TO REACH OUT TO YOUR COMMUNITY?

Joy Sajdak

We recently opened a Christian Cafe in downtown Wausau where all are welcome unconditionally. We also have strong health ministries.

John Henri Rorabeck

We go on mission trips, invite non-members to church, provide health seminars and collect stuff for those in need.

Sarah Hillebert

We broadcast church services on a local 3ABN station.

First Place Hustle Winners

Bill Martin of Madison Community Church took first place with a time of 18:42. Having run in 100 triathlons and completing an Iron Man in 11 hours he says, "This course was easy, but a lot of fun." Winner for the women was 12-year-old Augustyna Brewtar, with a time of 22:25. "It was fun running with so many people in the race," said Augustyna.

David Guerrero

Bert Wredberg

Prophecy seminars, active friendship evangelism, prison ministries.

Stanley Cottrell

Group Bible studies and community service.

Michael Ehm

One-on-one Bible studies and friendship evangelism.

Carroll Wheeler

Pathfinders, health fair, and blood pressure screening.

Mystery Bear

A white polar bear has a race number pinned on him in preparation for the Hallelujah Hustle Sunday morning. Many questioned the identity of the bear, but its identity has remained unknown. Bear declined to comment.

If you have information concerning this mystery bear, please share it with the communication office.
