Wisconsin Camp Meeting Looms Big

How many "Air Miles" would you earn in order to hear Mark Finley, Morris Venden, and Clifford Goldstein all preach? How much would you have to pay to attend a gospel concert by Steve Darmody? Give your wallet a break! You can experience it all at Wisconsin Camp Meeting, 1998.

Camp Meeting is a Seventh-day Adventist tradition (yes, there are some good traditions). The custom was popular among many protestant groups in the 1800's. Folks would leave their chores and responsibilities of home for some days of religious instruction and inspiration out in God's nature. The Advent people followed the custom, often with Ellen and James White in attendance, throughout southern Wisconsin in the 1850's.

Today, Camp Meeting is a privilege for God's people that they might enjoy a spiritual break from busy lives. Camp Meeting includes:

- ◆ Programs for Kids
- ◆ Programs for Teens
- ◆ Seminars
- ◆ Strong Bible Preaching
- ◆ Beautiful Music
- ◆ Inspirational Singing
- ◆ Prayer

This year, Wisconsin Camp Meeting begins on Friday night, June 19 at 7:15 P.M. with Clifford Goldstein. Always interesting and provocative, Elder Goldstein is the Religious Liberty Leader for the General Conference, the Global Organization for our Church. He will also preach at the 11:00 A.M. service on the next day.

"Early Glow" morning meetings come to us courtesy of Lowell Cooper (there is a true blessing in meeting with the Lord at 6:30 A.M.)

During the week days, seminars abound, morning and afternoon. While titles were unavailable at press time, presenters include: Joe Engelkemier, Walter Wright, Chris Roy, Charles Cleveland and Keavin Hayden.

Every weekday at 11:00 A.M., our own Steve Gallimore will be the featured speaker. This promises to be a high point in the day.

Keavin (pronounced Kevin) Hayden is one of the finest presenters on the subject of Last Day Events. He has become an expert on the End Time and how we can successfully prepare for the Time of the End. He will speak each week day at 4:00 P.M.

Sunday through Thursday evening, Elder Morris Venden will lead in evening meeting in the main pavilion. Elder Mark Finley will speak on Friday evening and close our 1998 Camp Meeting on Saturday Night.

What a program! What an opportunity! The only thing needing additional planning is that you be there.

Camp Meeting Choirs

There will be two Camp Meeting Choirs ministering this year. The first will be under Ed Pelto's leadership. Mr. Pelto is the Music Teacher at Wisconsin Academy.

This group will assemble immediately after the Friday night meeting for practice in order to minister on Sabbath morning.

A second choir will form immediately after the Saturday night program in the main tent under the Direction of Phyllis Corkum. Mrs. Corkum is in charge of auditing and Church Records at the Conference Office. This group will practice daily in preparation for ministry on June 27. Be there and make a joyful noise to the Lord.

New Wine Skins

A new movement is stirring in Wisconsin. On Sabbath May 23 at the Spanish brotherhood weekend, thirty evangelistic groups reported about their ministry for God. The report was impressive. At present there are about 60 visitors attending the small groups. Members are involved in 120 Bible studies.

how to be successful in this outreach. These small groups are a return to our Adventist roots. It is also the way early Christians grew. Making friends, inviting them to study the word in the context of a small group is a powerful way to increase God's kingdom.

Would you like to be a part of this new movement? Initially, ten churches will receive training at the Cerna weekend. You can check to see if your church is one of these. Over the next year more training will take place. If you have an interest contact, your pastor. If further information is desired contact Don Corkum or Steve Gallimore at the conference office.

You'll hear more about this new direction at campmeeting. Also campmeeting will feature the story of new members who tell miraculous accounts of God's transforming grace in their lives.

See you there!

Don Corkum
President

For 1998, all cabins and Conference Tent sites are booked! But if you have your own tent, a few good spots remain. "Due to high demand, we are developing about twenty more RV sites with water and electric", reports Conference Treasurer, Brian Hamilton. If you would like information or reservations, call Jackie at 608-241-5235.

New Communicator

Let me introduce you to the new editor for the Lamplighter. He is James Fox, new Communications Director for the conference and pastor of the Milton church.

Elder Fox began his ministry in Wisconsin in 1978 in Milton as an intern and then moved to the Racine area. The Lord blessed his ministry and many new members were added to the churches he pastored. In 1984 he was invited to Ontario, Canada to be conference evangelist. He continued his fruitful ministry there. In 1988, he became communication and church ministries director for the Ontario conference while continuing to be involved in evangelism.

James Fox

His most recent assignment before returning to Wisconsin was pastoring the Rutland Church in Kelowna, British Columbia. We welcome Elder Fox back to Wisconsin and know he will make a significant contribution to the growth of our conference. He plans to hold an evangelistic crusade each year along with his other responsibilities. His family will join him here in August.

Don Corkum
President

Newly baptized members are already taking an active part in these groups--some in leadership.

Evangelistic small groups are new wineskins to pour the new wine of enthusiastic ministry for God. "New wineskins" was our Lord's challenge to the people of His day (Mark 2:21,22). For new experience and ministry to flourish there must be new attitudes and structures. Evangelistic small groups are new wineskins.

These new wineskins are also stirring in the English speaking churches. Churches in the Madison and Milwaukee area are beginning to organize. Other churches throughout the conference are moving in this direction.

Training

The last weekend of August, Miguel Cerna, an Adventist pastor and the author of "The Power of Small Groups" will be in Wisconsin. He has been the inspiration behind many of these groups beginning. He will be training church members

Pathfinder Fair

Over two hundred Pathfinders, leaders, families and friends trooped onto Wisconsin Academy on April 26, 1998. The "Making a Difference" Fair highlighted a day of skills and activities proving that Pathfinding makes a difference.

Twelve clubs were participating together on this special day of the year which concludes one Pathfinder year and begins another. Clubs achieving the standard of excellence, the 200 Club, were awarded special trophies during award ceremony at the close of the day. The Central Wisconsin Songbirds, Dairyland Doers, Green Bay Pioneers, Lena Wildcats, Madison Mustangs, Rice Lake Sky Watchers, and the Wausau Crusaders, were recognized as 200 Clubs.

An earlier highlight of opening ceremonies featured six clubs participating for the first time in the annual Pathfinder Bible Bowl. Clubs from Rice Lake, Lena, Sheboygan, Fox Valley, Madison and Green Bay led the way. Sheboygan, Fox Valley, and Lena received third place in area meets in February. Madison, Rice Lake and Green Bay were first place award winners on the local area meets. At the statewide meet at Columbus, Madison and Rice Lake received a third place award and Green Bay was selected to represent Wisconsin at the Lake Union meet where they received a second place award. Our Bible bowl teams and coaches encouraged other Pathfinder teams to prepare for next year when the focus of study will be the book of Luke.

Our day together at the fair also included skill events in physical fitness, knot tying and tent pitching. A marvelous spirit of cooperation and good sportsmanship marked this time of fellowship. Small clubs lacking the required number of participants found ready and eager partners from larger clubs.

Camp Wakonda is owned and operated by the Wisconsin Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The camp is situated on the shores of two sparkling lakes and is surrounded by pines and oaks highlighting the natural beauty of Central Wisconsin.

To help the camper build character, the camp has been staffed with vibrant young Christians from our college and academy campuses. Through activities and specific times for worship the camper can experience the abundant Christian Life.

Be a part of the excitement and bring a neighborhood friend — there's no better way to prove that "Christianity in its truest form can be fun and exciting." Camp rules for acceptance and participation in the program are the same for everyone, without regard to race, color, sex, age, handicap or national origin.

Presidential Travels

From April 20-27, Elder Don Corkum accompanied a delegation of Lake Union leaders to Cuba. Their purposes were:

- ✓ To obtain reports on the work
- ✓ To encourage their fellow workers
- ✓ To give financial support to all the pastors and Bible workers in Cuba and Elder Corkum set out on April 20th for Havana. They carried with them suitcases full of clothing for distribution in Cuba and cash gifts amounting to 1/3 to 1/2 of the annual salary for each worker.

Westerners are surprised to see 1950 vintage U.S. cars still operating on the streets of Havana. In the midst of economic hardship, the spirits of our workers are high. Some travelled over thirty hours to receive their gift. Whether on bicycle, on foot or by car, one by one they came.

In the last days, we expect to see ways open up miraculously for the gospel to be preached and the work to be finished.

"To see the work progressing strongly and the gospel being preached effectively thrills my soul," said Elder Corkum.

Let us pray that the words of Christ might soon be fulfilled that, "this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world . . . and then shall the end come." Matt. 24:14

Break In and Vandalism Devastate School

On Sunday morning, May 24, neighbors discovered a break in at the Sunnyside Seventh-day Adventist Elementary school. The school is located at 176 Tenth Street, rural Clear Lake. Every window was broken! The main door was opened after breaking the glass and undoing the lock.

Police suspect this was the work of more than one person. Principal, Linda Rosen, reports that, "Everything in the classroom was smashed. Student's desks were tipped over, the small microwave and refrigerator were tipped over with food scattered around the room; the fish tank was shattered with water everywhere; drawers were torn off of cupboards, pianos were shattered, the photocopier and even the walls were broken with baseball bats." Cans of paints from the maintenance area were dumped on the floor and even fire extinguishers were discharged to create the maximum chaos and damage.

Investigating police officers were heard to remark that this was, "the work of an angry person." Brian Hamilton, Risk Manager for the Church in Wisconsin, remarked, "This is tragic. This school exists for the benefit of the children. To devastate their classroom when their school year is so near to its close is hurtful."

Campground Improvement

Development of our campground takes a leap forward with the completion of new sanitary lines to former RV sites having only water and electricity. The Country Plumber, Portage was the successful bidder for the new service to the campgrounds.

The Conference Executive Committee voted acceptance of the bid with construction to begin in March. Also due for completion will be the addition of water and electric service to rows 2300, 2400 and 7400. Good weather has blessed this endeavour.

Benson Camperships

In his will, a friend of our camp donated a piece of land to a wonderful purpose — first time campers (who would not otherwise be able to attend camp) will be allowed to participate free of cost!

Dr. Benson, a surviving brother, is assisting campers to attend this summer evangelistic outreach. the joint gift will amount to nearly $45,000 over the next fifteen years.

New Industry

Julie Gridley showing bird feeder

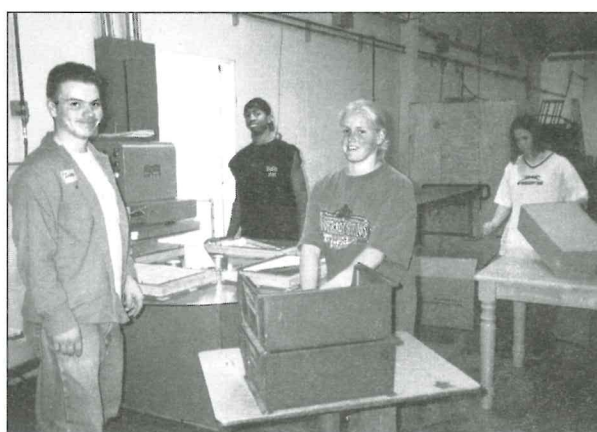

Our prayers have been answered for an industry for younger students at Wisconsin Academy. This month, the school negotiated a packaging contract with Gardner Equipment of Juneau, WI, and our students are already busy packaging plant hangers, wall brackets, extender hooks and bird feeders. Starting wage is $5.15 per hour. The industry will also be employing students during the summer.

If you are interested in this new job opportunity for your student, please call Sue Rappette to obtain a summer work application. Stop by the Academy booth at Camp Meeting to see our display of Gardner products.

Academy Day May 3

The weekend of May 3 was busy and fun-filled. Sixty-three prospective students and their parents were guests for the weekend at Wisconsin Academy.

After a free brunch and an assembly where visitors were introduced to the staff, the group toured the various departments. At the closing assembly, Dana Knudsen of Dodge Center and Jamie Danaher of Milton were awarded music scholarships of $250 each. Each elementary school or junior academy that was represented also received a piece of sports equipment to take home.
