Hope for the Homeland—Wisconsin Style

Just weeks after "9-11," Church leaders in the Michigan Conference began a plan to inspire hope for Americans. On the one-year anniversary of the attack on the World Trade Center, they conceived that every Adventist church in Michigan would open its doors to a public series of meetings entitled, Hope for the Homeland. Hope for the Homeland (HFTH) would be more than another evangelistic meeting:

- HFTH would be a sharing of the Advent message of hope
- HFTH would uplift Jesus, our only hope in these last days
- HFTH would offer eternal security to people who had seen their sense of well-being demolished before their eyes along with the World Trade Center

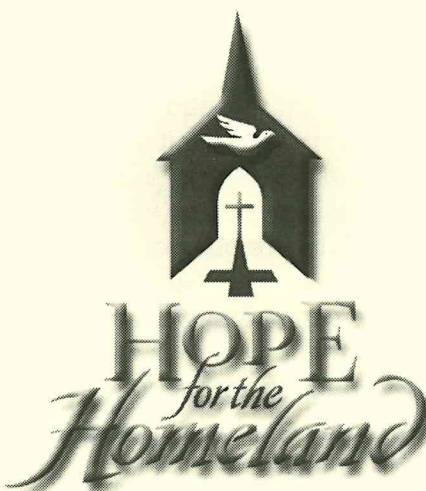

When Elder Gordon Retzer, President of the Lake Union Conference, learned of these plans, he shared these plans with the other conference presidents within the Lake Union. They were glad to respond to his invitation to join Michigan in this outreach.

So Hope for the Homeland became a focal point of activity:

- September 13 (yes, Friday the 13th—not superstitious, are you?) would be the opening night for over 500 evangelistic meetings in the Lake Union
- Over 200 of these evangelistic meetings would be conducted by lay men and women
- Over 2.5 million brochures

would be mailed to households the week of September 13

- Whether measured by commitment of finances or of personnel, this would be the largest evangelistic endeavor in the Lake Union's History

- Our November elders' retreat introduced a new technology for sharing the gospel—DVD disks have been developed which contain a full evangelistic series called, "New Beginnings." This series provides world class presentation capability to our lay people (20+ elders volunteered to hold evangelistic meetings in 2002)

We asked the pastors in January how many evangelistic meetings they intended in 2002. They responded that they intended to have 108 evangelistic meetings conducted by themselves, lay people, Conference office staff or visiting evangelists in this calendar year!

How is Wisconsin Involved?

The Lord is preparing our pastoral work force for this outreach:

- In August of 2001, nearly our entire pastoral force took training in Microsoft PowerPoint to prepare for holding their own evangelistic series
- The Lake Union has made available $2,000 grants for evangelistic equipment to pastors. The catch is that a pastor who applies for the grant must conduct an evangelistic series within 12 months. We have benefited with 12 pastors receiving this grant and holding their own evangelistic series

Another Pentecost

On April 1 Greg and Lesa Budd came and led out in the worship time at the conference office. They are giving inspirational leadership to prayer ministry in the conference and on this day they brought two seniors from the academy. The seniors shared their recent spiritual journey of how God has blessed their lives and given them a new focus for living. They prayed with us and they prayed for us.

Several weeks prior, I attended one of the evenings of the week of prayer at the academy and witnessed how students were leading out in prayer groups with all the students participating. It was thrilling to see students witnessing to students. It is evident that the power of the Holy Spirit is at work.

The Academy experience is just one illustration of what is happening throughout the conference. It seems that wherever I go, there is evidence of the presence of God's Spirit. Church members from the Janesville, Delavan and Beloit churches have met together on Friday evenings in recent weeks to pray for God's power to do a special work for Him. At a recent meeting in the Tomah church (a district meeting for the four churches of their district), many lay people were present to be trained to do evangelistic outreach. This is repeated throughout the conference. James Fox, our new Ministerial Director for the conference, reports that over 100 evangelistic outreaches are planned for this year among the English speaking members of the conference. The Spanish members are planning over 35 evangelistic outreaches as well. All this is in addition to the hundreds of Bible studies that are now taking place through video Bible Studies, Discover Bible Schools and home Bible studies.

As I view all these events I am reminded of statements from the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy that tell us that the power of God working through dedicated people will be the experience of God's people just before the coming of Christ. It is a part of the Latter Rain and the Loud Cry.

In Romans 9:28 we read, "He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness." So often in talking about the finishing of the work we sound as if it were our work and that we must finish it. But it is ours only to the extent that we are His. He will finish the work; we can be only the channels of His grace.

We are told in Desire of Ages that the "outpouring of the Spirit in apostolic days was the 'former rain,' and glorious was the result. But the 'latter rain' will be more abundant." p 827. My favorite description of this end time work for God is "Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers." GC 612

Let's keep close to God, follow His leading and watch the Mighty Outpouring of His Spirit. There will be no other experience on earth to equal what will result!

Reedsburg Church Damaged by Fire

Damage to the Reedsburg Church is substantial after a March 27 fire

On Wednesday, March 27, 2002, at 1:42 PM, a call was made to the Reedsburg Fire Department reporting that the Seventh-day Adventist Church was on fire.

The fire started in the corner of the sanctuary near the PA equipment. Fire inspectors are suspecting an electrical short as the origin of the blaze, possibly in a power strip. The present baptistry is full with water and debris from the fire.

We are planning on repairing the damage. Contractors have already begun their work.

New Academy Cafeteria Dedicated Debt-Free

On January 19, approximately 300 people gathered to dedicate the Wisconsin Academy Cafeteria. "This is wonderful," expressed Academy principal, John Thomas. "Many people here have sacrificed to see this modern cafeteria become a reality. We are now equipped to serve our students well."

Don Corkum, President

The new cafeteria is a "state-of-the-art" facility:

- ✓ New Freezers
- ✓ New Refrigerators
- ✓ Clean and proper food storage areas
- ✓ An office for the food service director
- ✓ New mixers and serving areas
- ✓ And a beautiful dining area with new tables and chairs

Elder Don Corkum reminded the group that it was just three and one-half years earlier at a Wisconsin Conference Constituency, that the Cafeteria project was inaugurated with a faith goal of finishing within four years. "Today, we are experiencing the fulfillment of that dream through God's blessing and the faithfulness of his people."

The policy of the Wisconsin Conference leadership has been that no debt would be incurred in the accomplishing of this project. The people of Wisconsin were overjoyed to participate in the debt-free dedication of this new addition to the gymnasium complex. The project was completed on time, on schedule and on budget.

The dedication of the Cafeteria was a celebration of what a small conference could do with God's leading and blessing. The service included special music by the Academy Choir, a history of the project, a brief sermonette by Conference President, Don Corkum, a responsive reading – The Act of Dedication – led by Principal John Thomas & testimonies by:

- ✓ Fred Miller, project manager
- ✓ Dr. Dale Sinnett, Alumni Association President
- ✓ Carl Sigler, Faculty Representative
- ✓ Jamie Stodola, Student Representative
- ✓ Beverly Benson, Former Food Services Director
- ✓ Debbie Shufelt, Current Food Services Director

Ray Hubbart, Fundraiser

- ✓ Academy church members
- ✓ Administration
- ✓ Conference leadership

The ceremonies were culminated with a ribbon cutting ceremony led by Norm Klam, Lake Union Conference Treasurer, and a tour of the new facility with light refreshments.

Camp Meeting is Less Than Two Months Away

There are no cabins available for rent (only a waiting list to be added to) and only 17 conference tent sites vacant. "In fact," reports Jean Schwark, Assistant Treasurer for the Conference, "there are only 7 full service & 14 electric-only RV sites left on our campground." If you have procrastinated with your reservation, there still may be room for you if you act quickly. But if not, you can still make day trips.

Cafeteria Notice

You may order Sabbath meal tickets up to June 7 by calling 608-241-5235 and asking for Jean Schwark. While at the campground, meal tickets must be purchased for Sabbath meals in the Administration office prior to 8 pm on Friday night. If you have called ahead and reserved tickets they can be picked up at the Administration office. Meals can be purchased on other days of the week a la carte in the cafeteria.

CAMP MEETING CHOIR - In the tradition of the last few years, we're planning for a choir to sing the second weekend of camp meeting for the church service in the adult tent. Practices will begin the first Saturday evening following the meeting and will continue throughout the week. The director will be Phyllis Corkum. Beautiful choral music accompanied by brass, flutes and cello has been selected. Plan now to be there and participate in this special musical experience.

CAMP MEETING BAND - We're planning for a band to play for Sabbath School song services both weekends of camp meeting. If you play an instrument, you are invited to participate. This provides excellent accompaniment for congregational singing. The coordinator is Elaine Corson from the Green Bay Seventh-day Adventist Church. Bring your instruments (and music stand, if you have one) and plan for practice in the adult tent at 8:30 Sabbath morning, June 15; 8:45 Sabbath morning, June 22.

Phyllis Corkum, Camp Meeting Music Coordinator

Camp Meeting is so much fun when everyone knows & follows the rules!

To make camp meeting safe and enjoyable for everyone, please:

1. Park only one vehicle by each campsite facing out.
2. Camp in assigned areas only.
3. Avoid moving personal property during Sabbath hours.
4. Purchase Sabbath meal tickets before sundown Friday at the Administration Office.
5. Observe modest dress and behavior. Wear shorts and play clothes only during play time, swim wear only at the beach.

Wisconsin Science Fair—2002

What do Alzheimers, budgerigars, clouds, dreams, electrolytes and forest fires have in common? On Sunday, April 7, students from around Wisconsin traveled to Wisconsin Academy to share their discoveries about these topics plus many more at the annual Science Fair sponsored by the Education Department of the Wisconsin Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Emily Graham waits for the judges to evaluate her project on "Scents"

Students in grades 5-8 from 18 elementary schools, 20 junior-academy students and eight home-schoolers registered 158 projects for consideration.

Participants received 102 first place ribbons, 19 second place ribbons, 8 third place ribbons and several participant recognitions. The ribbons were accompanied by certificates worth $35 for a first place, $30 for second and $25 for third, towards the entrance fee at Wisconsin Academy. Additionally, Andrews University sponsored $1,500 in scholarship awards for experimental projects. Winners of the Andrews scholarships were: Joshua Burrington of Madison SDA Elementary, $500; Marilyn Santiago of Milwaukee Junior Academy, $400; Brandon Harrison of Madison SDA Elementary, $300; Daniel Ewers of Madison SDA Elementary, $200; and Michael Destaercke of Green Bay Junior Academy, $100.

T-shirt winners included: Luamy Cornejo, Mark Doorley, Belinda Fox and Kelly Krueger. Once project judging was completed, Dr. Ben Gardner, a research chemist at John Hopkins School of Medicine in the Department of Pharmacology and Molecular Science gave an interesting presentation about the threat of biological terrorism such as anthrax. Dr. Gardner has done research for the Center for Disease

Research Project developing ways to defend against biological terrorism.

Other activities for the day include a "Helicopter Drop" competition for students in grades K-12, a "Pastamobile" race and a "Toothpick Bridge" challenge, featuring cash prizes for the top place winners.

One of the fair organizers, teacher Jeannie Fletcher, is amazed at the quality of the projects which students submit: "Each year that a student participates, they get a little more insight into what it takes to do a quality project and what the judges are looking for, and it shows up next year," Fletcher said. "Because I have always liked science, seeing a student get excited about researching a new topic or doing an experiment is rewarding for me." Fletcher is leaving the Science Fair Committee and was presented with a bouquet of flowers in appreciation for her years of service.

In addition to host school Wisconsin Academy, there are 20 Elementary/Junior Academy schools in Wisconsin. Fourteen of the elementary schools are one-room schools with 6-18 students each and six are multi-room schools varying from 22-52 students each.

Hope for the Homeland Timeline

Hope for the Homeland has a sequence of events that leads a Church into the process of Winning Souls

While the timeline is not absolute in each church, the goal of preparing the church for ministry and winning souls is the goal of this timeline (Exceptions are permitted and encouraged when the Lord so leads).

1. Plan for a Revival Emphasis in the 1st quarter of 2002 - Frequently, we win souls for Christ when we are ourselves revived by His Spirit.
2. Spend Sabbath afternoons in outreach ministries during the 2nd quarter of 2002 - Prayer walking, tract distribution, giving out Amazing Facts CD's, holding small group Bible studies in your home, lending Doug Batchelor videos to your neighbors - these are among the hundreds of ways Adventist churches in Wisconsin are reaching out to their community. You can, too!
3. Attend a training event (multiple time opportunities) - Holding a HFTH meeting is more than simply popping in a DVD! It involves visitation, how to give appeals, how to advertise the meetings and how to conduct the meeting.

The Lake Union Conference will hold a three day training session from May 31-June 2nd at Andrews University.

At Wisconsin Camp Meeting, there will an afternoon seminar from Monday to Friday on HFTH Outreach.

Elders Corkum and Fox are willing to come to your church district and hold a training seminar on HFTH for your local leaders

4. September 13—conduct the evangelistic effort and expect a miracle

Conference Office. This is in keeping with the Executive Committee's decision for financial restraint in voting the 2002 budget.

This figure did not include 35 meetings to be conducted in the Spanish language!

This has caused some wonderful problems—where can we obtain the funding for this much evangelism, where can we get training, etc.? God has wonderfully provided—as each need has appeared, the Lord has been ready with the solution.

How can your Church get involved?

If you are interested in being part of HFTH,

- Contact your pastor and volunteer your services.
- Discover what plans if any your Church Board has made
- There are opportunities for lay preachers, Bible workers and children's program leaders
- Pray diligently that the Lord will bless the preaching of His Word with an abundant harvest

James Fox
Ministerial Director/Evangelism
Coordinator

Green Bay Evangelism

On February 23, 2002, James Fox began evangelistic meetings together with Pastors Delmar Austin and Adam Case. In spite of 2 fearful winter storms, the Lord blessed the meetings with good attendance and nine souls were baptized or rebaptized.

Pastors Austin and Case continue to study with a number of fine candidates (one of whom has already been baptized) with hopes for adding more to the family of God in Green Bay.

We would love to dedicate more pages of the Lampletter to baptisms. Submit your photos (which we will gladly return after scanning) to:

Renewed a CD Lately?

Ouch! 2-3 % isn't anything to write to the kids about is it? In fact, if you're depending on that income, this may be a difficult time for you.

Perhaps a Gift Annuity might be a good option for one of those CD's. They can be written for as little as $5,000 and you could receive a quarterly payment with up to 12% annual return for life. In addition, you'll have the satisfaction of knowing you've made a significant contribution to the Lord's work. Call the Wisconsin Conference Planned Giving Department for more details 608-241-5235

Planned Giving Department Promise

We promise never to call you while you're eating to ask for a gift. In fact, we promise not to call you at all unless you call us first. We're not pushy; actually, our policy is that you must make the first contact.

So, whether you just have questions or would like us to help you with a Will or Estate Plan, give us a call at 608-241-5235. I'd like to be like the Maytag repairman.
