WA puts "the Good News in shoes" for 93-94

If wish academies were like that when my kids were in school." That was one parent's comment after hearing about the new school year at Wisconsin Academy. While outreach has always been an important part of life at WA, this year the school has placed an even greater emphasis on evangelism, according to Principal Steve Brown.

Academy chaplain/Bible Leacher Neil Richmund calls the program "Putting the Good News in Shoes."

"We want to give students a chance to put theory into practice," Richmund explains. To do that, two Fridays a month are devoted to community service--one week for freshmen and seniors, the next for sophomores and juniors. For a three-hour time period, classes are cancelled, and students and staff work together in the community.

The first Friday, several student groups, each accompanied by two staff members, set out on their missions. Two groups went to Columbus nursing homes, where they will regularly volunteer. Four students worked at Petersen Elementary as teacher assistants. Preparing trim for a new paint job at an elderly woman's home was the job for eleven students. Finally, ten students took a survey of town trees.

Tree survey? Yes. At the request of the city of Columbus, students recorded the species and condition of downtown trees, and measured the width of each tree trunk.

Richmund feels this type of outreach is especially important.
"We're trying to build up a rapport [with the community]," he says. In planning the year's projects, Columbus Mayor Joe Marks met with Richmund and the outreach committee.

Milwaukee crusades reap results

Fifty-five baptisms, the forming of a new Lake Region Conference church, and the return of several former Adventists have resulted from Milwaukee area crusades held this summer. Sponsored by the Wisconsin, Lake Region, and Lake Union Conferences, crusades will continue this fall as part of a major evangelistic push in the city.

At the Waukesha Church, 28 believers accepted Christ in a special baptism Sept. 11, reports Pastor Duane Brown. The baptisms follow a series held at the Waukesha Expo by Evangelist Leo Schreven. "We have an equal number of interests!" Brown exclaims.

Wisconsin Conference Evangelist Bernard Williams also conducted meetings July 9-Aug. 21 for Lake Region's Milwaukee Sharon Church.

While some described the tent site as "hot and mosquitoey," attendance was strong. "We could not have had a better speaker than Evangelist Williams," says Pastor Alfonzo Greene, Jr.

The pastor reports 27 baptisms, with two more planned.

According to Greene, as a result of these meetings, a new Lake Region church will be formed.

Near Kenosha, Auldwin Humphrey's ten-night crusade opened August 6 at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside's Community Arts Theater. "Lifestyle 2000" featured special health presentations, musical programs, skits, and Bible preaching.

Prior to the meetings, student (Please continue on page 4.)

What's new in Wisconsin schools

The Wisconsin school year opened with two new SDA schools and significant renovations in several others.

Serving the Portage district is the new Pine View School in Wisconsin Dells. According to Education

Rose Paden greets Nathan Morauske at Petersen Elementary.

Superintendent Herb Wrate, 17 students are now enrolled.

Six students attend the new Fox Valley School located in Neenah. Helene Riggs is both principal and teacher.

After operating for 26 years in just one room, the Rice Lake School has a new home, reports Pastor Norm Yoder. "The dreaming, planning, fund raising and construction of the new building has been in process for nearly five years," he says.

Located behind the church, the new facility includes a gym, two classrooms, kitchen, offices, and bathroom showers.

With funds from the Columbus Church and private donations, Petersen Elementary School was able to make several improvements both inside and out. Renovations include newly paved parking lots; an outdoor basketball court; a new furnace and duct work; a new ceiling, wall coverings, and extra insulation in the gym.

The newly remodeled academy chapel.

Columbus Pastor Gaylan Herr says the entire project cost about $22,000.

Some say the food tastes better in Wisconsin Academy's newly remodeled cafeteria. Donations from the Committee of 100 and others made new carpet, windows, serving units, and drywall possible.

The academy chapel also received a badly needed facelift when pews, new flooring and drapes were installed this summer. The Columbus Church raised funds for the roughly $48,000 project.

Academy, continued

subjects? Great, apparently. In fact, many students want to serve in a wider field. Three mission trips both in and out of the U.S. are being planned. In addition, the seniors have voted to make their spring class trip one of service.

While enrollment of 104 is down slightly from last year's 116, staff remain positive. Brown attributes the decline to a large graduating class, family moves, financial burdens, and a small freshman class.

However, Brown says he's excited about the strong spiritual atmosphere pervading the campus.

Richmund agrees. "This year the students seem more committed than ever," he says. "It's by far our best year yet."

Prisoner finds SDA Church on his own

A call from the chaplain at the Green Bay Correctional Institution recently led Pastor Marvin Clark to meet Dennis, an inmate who, without realizing it, discovered Adventist truths on his own.

"He had been studying the Bible three hours a day for two years," Clark said in a recent phone interview. "Using only a King James Bible and Strong's Concordance, and without any Christian upbringing, this man developed his own theology."

Dennis then went to Chaplain Paul Emmel and outlined his beliefs. "Do you know of a church that believes the way I do?" he asked.

"You have described the Seventh-day Adventist Church perfectly!" Emmel told him. The chaplain immediately contacted Pastor Clark, who now studies with Dennis weekly.

"I'm amazed at how much he knows," Clark said. "He has a knowledge of Scripture which would put many of us to shame."

ABC open house a success

It took a private plane from Rice Lake to haul back the purchases one group made at the ABC Open House Sept. 12.

ABC Manager Roy Hunt said the open house was well attended, with several first-time visitors. Many shoppers commented on the "clean, open feeling" and the ease of finding items, he added.

Recently Hunt and the ABC staff remodeled the store, painting walls and rearranging displays for better traffic flow. They also have added some requested items, such as more children's Bible games.

Other arrivals include several new women's books; for titles call the ABC, 608/241-2145.

Operation Amigo update:

North Dominican member writes Wisconsin

Conference office staff were surprised when the fax machine recently cranked out a handwritten letter, right, from North Dominican, Wisconsin's sister conference. Currently Wisconsin Conference is raising funds to build five churches there as part of Lake Union's Operation Amigo.

"We need to finish the construction [on] the church," the writer said. He is believed to be a member of the Natanza Church.

Of the $25,000 goal set by Wisconsin Conference, $5,000 has been raised--enough to build one church. Donations may be made through December 31, 1993.

A school-building trip to San Francisco de Macoris is also planned for Dec. 8-22. For details contact Dale Ziegele, 608/241-5235.

Camp memories

Summer '93 at Camp Wakonda held "many opportunities for ministry, said Wisconsin Youth Director Dale Ziegele. Over half the campers each week were non-SDA. While skiing, skits, and horses may have been fun, one Tween camper said she'll most remember "Sabbath afternoon and spending time with my unit."

Youth Educational Scholarship Pilot Program

Last year, 33 Youth Educational Scholarships (Y.E.S.) were awarded to students who otherwise would not have been able to attend Wisconsin Academy. In order to receive a Y.E.S. scholarship, a student must meet the criteria below:

- 1. Maintain passing grades.
- 2. Cooperate fully with work/study program (students over 16 work in industry).
- 3. Uphold school standards and rules.

In addition, the recipient's parents must show a definite financial need and make regular monthly payments on their financial commitment.

It takes $50-$60,000 to cover one year's Y.E.S. funds. To do this, the 1993-94 pilot program asks families and individuals to consider donating $100 or more per year to the annual Y.E.S. fund.

This annual fund will be used for Y.E.S. scholarships only; it does not replace the need for sponsors. Individual sponsors will still be needed for some individual students.

Several members of the Y.E.S. Committee, K-12 Board, and Finance Committee have launched the fund with $100 each. If you would like to help--in any amount--please fill out the form below. Send your pledge form and contribution to your local church in a tithe envelope marked "Annual Y.E.S. Fund." The sooner donations are made, the sooner we'll know how many Y.E.S. scholarships can be awarded. Thank you for your help!

1 Cor. 10:31 says, "Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."

We often fail to understand the importance of influence. Often our life style will do more to lead people to Jesus than a Bible study.

I was having lunch several days ago with the manager of a trucking industry. As we visited, he told how one of his drivers was always witnessing about his church and what it teaches, "But," he said, "that driver cheats in his log book more than anyone I have ever known." Indicating that the driver's witnessing was totally nullified by his life style.

A few days later I ran across the following story I want to share with you.

INFLUENCE

They had a little automotive body shop a mile or so out of town. An insurance man used to drop by quite often - first, in his capacity as a claims adjuster; more often he just dropped by.

One day, in between the grinding and hammering, he surprised one of the brothers by saying, "I don't understand you fellows. You're different."

"What do you mean?"

"Well, I don't quite know how to explain it - but I have been watching you fellows and you're so fair in your repair estimates and so honest in your work. I notice you don't smoke or swear - and you never lose your tempers when things go wrong. I keep wondering why."

"Well, I guess maybe it's because we're Christians."

"Christians," laughed the big man, "I'm a Christian; I belong to the biggest church in town - but I'm not like you."

It was another day. The insurance man had dropped by and was standing - watching. One of the men asked him, "Would you like to take some Bible studies?" "I think I would," was the quiet reply. As a result, the man, his wife, and his son became members of the mechanic's church.

As I thought about these two stories, I thought about those of us who are members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. What influence do we have on our children, other church members, and new members, in the way we use the finances God has entrusted to us.?*

Do we support the church with our tithes and offerings or do we send them to some other organization and then complain because the Conference does not do all we think it should?

Do we want to have all the money needed for Evangelism, Wisconsin Academy, Church and School Buildings, Worthy Students and other projects funded by Wisconsin Budget Offerings. And do we want it so much that every month we give 2% of our income to Wisconsin Budget? Do we encourage others to do the same?

We appreciate all of you who give 2% and also those who give less. Let us all give sacrificially, and our God who sees in secret shall reward us openly. Perhaps someone will ask us what is the secret of our success and we can share that it is the blessing of our God.

"There is no limit to the usefulness of the one who, putting self aside, makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart, and lives a life wholly consecrated to God." Christian Service, p. 254. *Used with permission from the Michigan Conference Stewardship Department.

Milwaukee, continued

literature evangelists distributed 24,000 flyers inviting people to attend. Opening night drew a crowd of 550, says district Pastor David Scofield.

On Thursday night, seven student LE's took part in a musical presentation.

The pastor reports 18 good interests and another 24 Bible study interests. The first baptism is scheduled for early October. Smaller meetings will continue around the Kenosha/Racine area.

Below is a list of remaining Milwaukee area crusades:

Milw. Central/Northwest Herb Larsen Sept. 24-Oct. 23

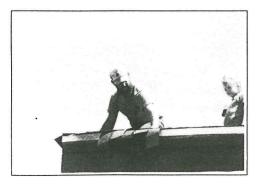

Milw. Central Spanish Elias Correa Oct. 9-Nov. 6

Milw. North Spanish Victor Borgos Oct. 9-Nov. 6

Milw. Southeast Spanish Miguel Aldonia Oct. 9-Nov. 6

Racine Spanish Armando Miranda Sept. 11-Oct. 9

The LAMPLETTER is a bimonthly report to the members of the Wisconsin conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Please address all correspondence to Communication Department, Laurie Herr, Editor.

Quick Roofers

It didn't take long for a volunteer crew of about 30 to re-roof the lodge at Camp Go Seek last August. Some workers left home at 3:30 a.m. to get started early; by 2:30 p.m. the job was done. Three inches of additional insulation wil keep the lodge cooler in summer and warmer in winter.
