Welcome To Camp Meeting

Mike Edge
President

In 1867 Wisconsin's first Seventh-day Adventist camp meeting was held. Church leader, Isaac Sanborn offered the use of his cow pasture east of Janesville, and a big meeting tent was ordered for $16. About a dozen families camped in tents; others stayed in nearby homes. Uriah Smith and James and Ellen White came from Battle Creek to speak at what W.C. White later called a "forerunner of camp meetings." About 1,200 attended this first camp meeting.

Those early sessions were quite different from the camp meetings we know today. Most families arrived by wagon, but in 1876 one man walked 70 miles to attend the camp meeting in Ripon! Campers brought baked goods and fresh garden produce, and one year a local family even brought a cow.

Daily programs began at 5:00 a.m. Scandinavians packed the Oakland tent to hear messages preached in their native language. After the evening meeting, children gathered around the campfire to hear James White tell stories of the early days. The Whites attended Wisconsin camp meetings for many years.

Since those pioneer years, camp meetings have met in 52 Wisconsin cities. From 1927-1977 they remained at Portage. Then after two years at Wisconsin Academy, facilities were moved to Camp Go Seek, now called Camp Wakonda.

Despite many changes, we still come together for the same reason: to grow stronger in the Lord. May you be richly blessed this week.

F. Brian Stephan
Secretary/Treasurer

GENERAL SITE (CABIN OR SITE) RENTAL POLICIES

Upon arrival all campers shall receive a camper registration card from the attendant at the entrance (preferable) or must be obtained at the locating office.

Unoccupied accommodations will be available for rental to others Sunday morning unless the locating office is notified.

Rental of a site is for the duration of camp meeting only. Each camping accommodation is designated for one family only.

In accordance with Wisconsin state and local health codes, dispose of wastewater, both gray and black, at a designated dump station or in restroom toilets. Check camp meeting map for dump station location. Dumping on the ground is illegal.

No sewer, water, gas, or electrical lines or connections, temporary or permanent, may be added to those originally provided by the camp.

No campsite shall be designated or used by anyone as a legal residence.

Cancellations made after May 26 may decrease the amount of money transferable to the next camp meeting.

Any renter shall lose the right to re-rent or remain in any accommodation if it is found to be occupied by children or young people, unmarried and/or under age 20, without proper chaperonage as defined by the Camp Meeting Management Committee.

Any renter shall lose the right to re-rent or remain in any accommodation if found to be in violation of any of the principles of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

All subletting is managed by the Camp Meeting Management Committee. Subletting is possible for no more than two years, at which time the camping accommodation will be made available to the next person on the waiting list.

For safety, a working fire extinguisher is recommended for each site.

Our electrical service is limited. Please limit multiple use of electrical devices. Running either A/C or microwave is appropriate. Running both simultaneously is not.

We Have This Hope

We have this hope that burns within our hearts
Hope in the coming of the Lord
We have this faith that Christ alone imparts
Faith in the promise of His Word

We believe the time is here
When the nations far and near
Shall awake and shout and sing
Hallelujah! Christ is King!

We have this hope that burns within our hearts
Hope in the coming of the Lord

Words and music by Wayne Hooper
