Welcome to the Wisconsin 2018 CAMP MEETING

Welcome to Camp Meeting!

We're glad you are here. Whether you are here for a few hours or for the entire week, we hope that camp meeting 2018 will be a rich spiritual blessing.

Camp meeting is a special blend of family reunion, VBS, old fashioned tent meetings, and camping. Whether this is your first experience at camp meeting, or you have a rich heritage of many camp are here.

Our theme this year is "Faithful to His Mission." Jesus has given us specific instruction to share the wonderful message of His love, His transforming power, and His second coming with neighbors, friends, and work associates. Sharing Jesus with other should not be considered an optional activity, but one that is core to being a Seventh-day Adventist Christian. And this call to be faithful to His mission includes every one who has activities are provided for all ages. Features include the annual Hallelujah Hustle, ABS Sunday book sale, health features, capped off with a special baptism on the final Sabbath.

We pray that while you are here, you will be inspired, encouraged and equipped to return to your community (your personal mission field) and share Jesus in winning ways that will draw many to fall in love with Jesus.

May Jesus bless you richly this week,

Michael G. Edge

Mission to the Digital Frontier

Gospel on the Frontier People today are on the Internet. Will we be ready to meet them there with the Gospel? And what does our website communicate to potential church visitors?

The Social Realm Social media has turned life into a continual conversation for youth and young adults. Are our churches a part of that conversation?

To Blog or Not to Blog? In a world where people care more what some random guy on the Internet thinks than a pastor or a professor, are we capitalizing on that by putting out perception-shaping articles about our church all over the Internet?

Radio vs Podcasting Adventists have long been utilizing radio, television and other forms of communications technology to reach people across the globe. Are those still the most effective mediums for communications? Will they be in 10 years?

PIONEER PAVILION

Called to Serve - Taking the LIGHT into Darkness.

How can I put into words the things that God has done for me? I think of the words "Behold," as Jesus says, "I stand at the door and knock and if any man hears my voice and open the door I will enter unto him." Jesus has been knocking, calling on me and pursuing me since my baptism at Camp Wahdoon at 12 just four years after my mother was baptized at the Milwaukee Central Church. After many years in public school and the year and half at Wisconsin Academy (1976) and then onto Andrews University in 1977. Jesus kept knocking and speaking Michael "I have plans for you that you know nothing of." However, after only a couple of semesters I had started to take notice of things of this world and found myself taking my eyes of Jesus and soon I was not "feeling" my faith and so I left Andrews and would not come back till after some 30 years later. Most of those years I spent chasing after "feelings," running wild and free (so I thought), in a seductive world that filled up all my senses, my eyes, ears, head and heart with the pride of life, self-worth and vanity. I was seeking my identity only in me, myself and I, and not in Jesus Christ, mixing feelings with my faith.

Jesus kept on knocking and softly calling, "come [Michael], let us reason together." So many times, even now, I can look back on my life and see all those times Jesus stood and knocked on the door of my heart and I would not or could not listen, because the noise within myself raged, rocked, and rolled. Then many years later it was one night after already considering the vanities of life for a couple of months, the thought kept looping in my brain over and over, that I heard a distinct knocking. It was then, that I finally opened the door and allowed Jesus to come in and He came in onto me and said, "walk with me Michael!" I accepted His invitation and His extended nail pierced hand, and like a little boy, my little hand took hold of His fingers and held on and started that walk. It's been 12 years since I opened that door at 48 years of age, and Jesus and I are still walking and holding each other's hand. Moreover, I have to say with a chuckle, there has also been a lot of time where He has me running like a degree in "Evangelism and Soul Winning" in conjunction with the ARISE field school and Andrews University. Afterwards, I would go onto to serve as a volunteer Bible Worker in Adrian MI. Later, in 2013, I received a call to the Wisconsin Conference to be a Bible Worker trainer in South East Wisconsin and soon after, I received a "Pastoral Calling" from the Wisconsin Conference into full time pastoral ministry. I answered that call and I am presently enjoying serving in the Coulee Region District Region of Tomah, Sparta, Hylandale and La Crosse Churches with church plants in Viroqua, Black River Falls and Sparta Spanish (Obeida), and also the Wisconsin Conference Men's Ministry Coordinator.

And so, now this journey of walking with Jesus brings me to having my church and thus set aside by "Ordination," all by God's leading and to His glory. I must say this has been a very humbling process for myself and for my wife, Obeida, too. I have never found myself in a place where God has not made provisions especially with godly people. He has blessed more than I deserve with a my wonderful, beautiful and godly wife who is also my co-partner in ministry. To think that we were married in a Waldensian Church in Torre Pellice, Italy, in 2013, where a faded painted banner overhead above the pulpit, heralds these words "Light into Darkness." That is our mission in serving God together: Taking the LIGHT into the darkness. I love you Obeida, thank you for marrying me, it is not easy being a pastor's wife! I am also thankfully blessed, beyond measure, many godly men and women that God has into my life, who journey with me along the way, pointing out to me the high roads, while also praying with me and for me, and encouraging me through the low spots. I thank God for the leadership of the Wisconsin Conference and the Lake Union Conference and for recognizing me for their recommendations for ordination. Finally, I thank those who co-labor with me in my district, the lay-pastors and the elders for their godly counsel and leadership, and of course to all my district church family I thank you for accepting my wife and I with your love, prayers and support and just the same we love you back, thanking God often for you too!

Is Jesus is knocking on your door? what is keeping you from opening the door to walk with Him?
