Welcome to the Wisconsin 2017 CAMP MEETING

We're glad you are here.

Whether staying for the week, or just a few hours, we hope you find camp meeting 2017 to be a spiritual blessing.

Camp meeting is a wonderful mixture of praising God, catching up with friends, making new friends, Christ-centered sermons, and inspiring music. Have you ever thought that it is also a foretaste of heaven?

When we enter those pearly gates, wonderful gift of salvation. With excitement, we will greet friends that we wept over as they were placed in the grave, and embrace others that we diligently prayed for.

Our theme this year is "Going Home." Our focus is looking forward with anticipation to the grand reunion called the Second Coming, when all who love Jesus will be united with Him. Programs and activities are provided for all ages. Special features include the annual Hallelujah capped off with a special baptism on the final Sabbath.

Jesus is making personal, detailed, customized plans for you to spend eternity with Him. He desires that each of us will be with Him, and He will wipe every tear (and every reason to be sad or lonely) away.

Our prayer is that throughout the time you are here you will experience Jesus in a new way, and the longing to be united with Him will grow stronger.

Money Mantras Find many practical ideas for gaining control of money, and enjoy some humor along the way. This presentation will augment practical suggestions along with wisdom from Scripture and Ellen White.

Getting Yourself Out of Debt The average household with one or more credit cards owes more than $8,000. Personal bankruptcy has reached a record high. Come learn strategies and organizations available to help you get out of debt.

Leave a Legacy We will look at a man who changed his legacy with a legal document that is still famous over the world 110 years later. Come learn who he was and how we can follow his example.

Lessons from the Life of Oseola McCarty Oseola was a washerwoman with a 6th-grade education who managed to carefully save a small fortune. Come learn lessons from her example and find out how you can do the same.

Ellen G. White's Will As one of the founders of the SDA Church and God's special last day prophet, Ellen White had quite a bit to say about Christian estate planning, the importance of wills, and the notion of not waiting till death to make charitable contributions. We will look at her personal struggles as well as her interesting example.

Hickory Lodge Great Room . . . Monday - Friday 2:15 pm

NICHOLAS MILLER

If you love nature, you will want to seriously consider this seminar. Together, we will explore and review just how God intends to use nature to draw us closer to Himself. In each seminar session we will take a "field trip" on the big screen and travel to a most beautiful location. Then we will spend a portion of time reviewing scripture passages and Spirit of Prophecy statements that tell us some very fascinating things about nature and nature's Creator. Each of the four seminar sessions will be unique and different and will stand alone, so plan to stop by for one session or for all four sessions and be blessed.

The Power of a Resilient Family These seminars throughout the week will discuss how to effectively cope with change, crisis, and stress and not be overwhelmed. At some time or another, most families experience changes, then experience stress resulting from the changes, and then go into crisis-mode. However, not all families have a crisis as a result of the stress from change. Resilient families are able to rebound from adversity, to flex in response to the pressures and strains of everyday family life, to become stronger after the change, and to adapt with more resources at their disposal.

- How well does your family cope with change, crisis and stress?
- Is your family resilient?
- Can you increase your family's resilient quotient?

FREDDY DE LOS SANTOS ORDINATION

PIONEER PAVILION

I was born in the Dominican Republic, the fifth of six children. My parents raised me as a Catholic even though we rarely went to mass. At the end of 1989, I came in contact with the Seventh-day Adventist church for the first time. After coming to an evangelistic meeting, I made my decision to follow Jesus and was baptized January 27, 1990, along with my mother and grandparents.

In the summer of 1993, I started as a colporteur in Santo Domingo, then in the fall was admitted to the Dominican Adventist University where I started my preparation for ministry. In May 1997, I graduated with a bachelor's in Theology and continued to work immediately in the publishing ministry of the Dominican Union for about one year. In July of 1998, I received the call to work in the publishing ministry in Puerto Rico where I developed more interpersonal skills and assisted the pastor at the local church.

God had just begun with me. In the year 2000, I moved to the United States and located in Wilmington, Delaware where I volunteered for a local church. The year 2001 was when we started a church plant in New Castle, Delaware, and successfully organized it. This church today has over one hundred members. The time came for more preparation so, in August 2007, I started at Andrews Adventist Seminary to pursue my Masters of Divinity, completing it at the end of 2009. After finishing the seminary in January, 2010, I received the call to work as a full time pastor in Wisconsin. Since then, I minister to four Hispanic churches: Sheboygan, Green Bay, La Hayes, and Waukesha Spanish. For the past seven years I have had the opportunity to work in the Wisconsin Conference. It has been a growing experience. I look forward to many more years in ministry working to bring souls to the feet of Jesus.

My goal is to continue working in pastoral ministry by serving and training the church, preaching the Gospel, and helping others to prepare for the second coming of Jesus.

I look forward to many more years in ministry working to bring souls to the feet of Jesus.

the church disappeared and the world took over. I spent the next four years on active duty. I graduated from the Naval Submarine School and the Naval School of Health Sciences. I went on to serve nine more years in the Naval Reserves as a Navy Hospital Corpsman. I served with both the Navy and the Marine Corps. I spent two years on active duty of the USS Ohio, the Navy's largest nuclear submarine. During my three deployments on the submarine, my father died from his alcoholism just after my 19th birthday.

I was born in Wheeling West Virginia, then raised on a farm in rural north-eastern Ohio. The son of a first generation Italian American, my grandfather immigrated just after the century seeking a better life and opportunities. Sadly, he died in a coal mining accident when my father was just five years old.

After a work related accident, my father became a violent alcoholic, and I grew up with my family being abused by him. I was raised without having Jesus in my life, even so, God did find ways to reach out to me and my family. Even though we didn't study the Bible, go to church, pray or any of the other spiritual disciplines associated with Christian living, God still Ten Commandments with Charlton Heston, and a show every Sunday with a man so very different from my father. His voice was so soothing, melodious, and calming. His name was Pastor George Vandeman, and the show was "It Is Written." God was planting seeds which would take many years to grow to fruition.

At the age of thirteen, my parents divorced and we moved back to Wheeling to live with my grandmother on my mother's side. She was a God-fearing woman of strong moral conviction and strength of character. One of the requirements of living in her home was to attend church weekly.

After high school, I joined the Navy. It wasn't long before the influences of Most of my life, I seemed to feel I was drifting aimlessly until the Lord was able to reach me again and give my life a real purpose. As with most testimonies, there is so much more to mine. I have gone from being a godless heathen to a God-fearing leader. God has taken me to the far reaches of the world to preach the everlasting Gospel message to people I would have never imagined meeting otherwise.

I am a graduate of Southern Adventist University with a Bachelor's degree in Theology and a minor in Practical Ministry. My lovely wife and I will be married 27 years on June 23rd of this year. We have one daughter who attends school at Hillside Christian School.
