Quarters for Secret DVDs

It was Thursday morning at Wisconsin camp meeting and I had been telling mission stories every morning at the Primary tent. I started telling my very favorite, a miracle story that involves secret DVDs in a closed country in Asia. I told them how a church member was impressed to bring a secret DVD to the marketplace and then I asked, “How many of you have ever had a quarter?” Every hand shot up around the tent! Then I told them, “Do you know, you can make an eternal difference with just one quarter. That is what it costs to print a secret sermon DVD for this closed country!”

At that moment Maddy, her blue eyes shining, shot both hands up into the air. She was clutching a quarter in each hand. “I have two quarters right now. I want to give them for secret DVDs!” I hadn’t been expecting an immediate response, but I took those two quarters, put them in my pocket, and continued the story. I was touched by Maddy’s unprompted gift, but little did I know that with those two quarters she had started a movement of mission giving.

That afternoon a boy came rushing across the grass towards me, “Pastor Lisa! Pastor Lisa! I have a quarter for secret DVDs, too!” Later two curly-haired brothers, Moriah and Micah, found me and exclaimed, “We have quarters for DVDs!” But that was only the start of their giving. Their grandmother later told me how excited and busy they were looking for ways to earn more quarters at camp meeting! Friday morning before I started my story, I reached into my pocket and brought out the growing collection of jangling coins. “Look at how many secret DVDs we can buy now!” Later that morning two more girls found me and gave. Then a brother with two little sisters eager to get in on the giving. The kids kept coming.

By Sabbath morning when I stood up to talk, I had quite a pocketful of money. But then it happened. Before I'd even begun to speak, children from all over the tent spontaneously stood and began to walk towards me. About two dozen smiling children came, pressing quarter after quarter, and even some bills into my hands. I left with a heart full of joy in these mission-minded children and now two pockets full of money. By that evening I had $50.50, enough to purchase 202 DVDs. Before I left, one little girl, her brown eyes sparkling, promised, "I'm going to save money this year for secret DVDs. I'm going to save until my bank is stuffed to the top!"

Question of the day

HOW DO YOU SHARE JESUS WITH PEOPLE IN YOUR LIFE?

• One of the ways I share Jesus with people in my life is by being honest about how He gets me through each day. Many times I think we are tempted to take credit for getting through life on our own, but after pulling through a major life upset only by the grace of God, I realized that there was no way I could, in all honesty, take the glory for that. I never would have made it through were it not for God.

Shaundi Davis - Madison, WI

• Through every day mundane acts of serving, like cooking and cleaning and by an example of a kind disposition and positive attitude.

Christine Horton
Madison East, WI

• I share Jesus through my actions, how I interact with others and live my life, because actions tell more than words most times.

Judith G.

Deerfield Beach SDA Church

• Work for others as you would for Jesus. One of my clients has been very curious about what Jesus has done for me in my life. He notices the impact the Lord has had on the work I do for him. Even though I have challenges it seems important to live in a way that shows how Jesus worked them out for me. This client and his wife prayed with me the other day. PTL!
