

Message from the Camp Meeting
SUPERINTENDENT

As the week closes we pray that camp meeting has been a wonderful experience for you this year! Spending time here with Jesus and fellow believers is such a blessing that we regret that it is coming to an end. However, as camp meeting comes to its conclusion, we would appreciate it if you were able to help us prepare for the summer camps that start in just a few days. Please make sure that everything is taken care of and clean before you leave on Sunday. Thank you for your prayers and support as ministry continues here at Camp Wakonda. Looking forward to seeing you next year!

Blessings,
Tom Michalski
Camp Meeting Superintendent

Taking time for a visit.

The Power of Christian Influence

Delores Monberg, born January 2, 1928, is a pleasant 91-year-old lady living in Superior, Wisconsin. Born and raised in the city sharing the same name as Lake Superior, Delores has remained close to home all her life. She has been an active member of the Superior SDA Church throughout most of its 105-year existence, and that congregation has helped her see Jesus clearly.

Childhood and Church School

Born an only child, to Walter and Letitia Saline, Delores enjoyed the love and attention her Seventh-day Adventist parents showed her. During the winters her father would walk the block to the church to start the fire and warm up the one-room church school. Delores attended the school for 10 years and was deeply impressed with God's love. Her mother was also an intelligent and faithful Christian, and she would teach the young people's class. Delores reflects: "What I am or hope to be I owe to my mother." Her parent's passion for the church, Adventist education, and helping the community shaped her passion and mission for Christ.

Door-to-Door with Dolly Duzits

As she neared the end of her elementary education, Delores was inspired to attend Junior Camp at Waupaca, WI. While just 11-years-old, she decided to raise the funds herself. When the family attended the 4-day Spooner Camp Meeting, she went out into the community. Going door-to-door in the afternoons, her blonde curls bounced as she sold Dolly Duzit golden metal cleaning sponges. By the end of the weekend she had raised enough money to go to Junior Camp! That memory had a lasting impact on the young girl that would stay with her for the rest of her life. God will provide a way for us to learn more about Him.

Elder Joe Levens

One person that influenced Delores in learning about Christ was Elder Joe Levens. Like her mother, Joe was also very involved with the young people. At night, at her bedside, Delores would pray with her mom to "please bless Brother Levens and the other big shots."

Born into a large Catholic family, Joe worked the grain elevators on Lake Superior so that grain could be exported around the world. His wife, Gertie, had become an Adventist during an evangelistic tent meeting held in Superior at the turn of the 20th century. Joe told his wife that if she ever let an SDA pastor into the house, he would kick him down the stairs. Despite his misgivings, one day he came home from work to find Gertie hosting prayer meeting in their home. Pastor Edwardson, a Norwegian, was leading out on the topic of the Sabbath. Joe quietly sat down in the living room and listened. At the end of the meeting, he declared "I will keep the Sabbath."

Joe's newfound commitment was met with difficulties. He lost his granary job for keeping the Sabbath. Yet, a few days later, his boss knocked on his door and said: "You're too good of a man to lose. Come back to work, and you can have your Sabbaths off." Joe eventually became the Chief Grain Inspector for the state of Wisconsin. God's faithfulness and providence deeply impacted Joe, and he became an active leader in the Superior SDA Church.

During the 1920s the Superior Church was pastor-less for 11 years. Although he only had an eighth-grade education, Joe would preach every single week. By the end of the decade his father, mother, and a few of his siblings joined the Adventist faith. He also led out in an evangelistic series entitled: "Why I Left the Roman Catholic Church." Hosted in the Oddfellows Hall, many people from all over town came to hear him speak. Many, including Catholics, came into the church as a result of his earnest, sincere presentation of the Gospel.

Elder Joe Levens was such an inspiration for Delores that she took a liking to one of his sons: Dewayne. With his blessing, the two eventually married in 1948. One year later Joe would pass away. Delores reflects that when he died, she shook for 30 minutes. "I adored him," she says tearfully. "He will be the first person I will look for in heaven." She saw Jesus in the life of her father-in-law. Moreover, she knew that she too could help others see Jesus.

Reflecting Jesus

Due to the influences of her mother and father-in-law, Delores made it her mission to be fully invested in the lives of young people. For decades she was Pathfinder Director and was a Missionary Volunteers (MV) leader. She concludes, "the best people are those who have a heart for the young people." When she saw Jesus in the lives of her elders, she had to share the same Savior with the youth.

BAPTISM

This Sabbath afternoon at 4:00 several people are choosing to be baptized in Sandow Lake. One of them is Nyiramahirwe Tumukunde. She was born and raised in a Congo refugee camp in Rwanda, and brought to the United States under the care of the Fox Valley SDA Church five years ago after the war. Nyiramahirwe says, "There are many reasons as to why I want to be baptized. One, I want to be reborn in the name of Jesus Christ, and second, I want to grow old in the love of Jesus, to reflect His kindness and experience His peace in my life."

A friend of Nyiramahirwe's has also chosen to be baptized this year at camp meeting. Her name is Grace Iribagiza and she says, "I have always wanted to get baptized, but this year the feeling got stronger and I knew I had to get baptized. God has done so much for me and my family. I want to accept God completely and grow in His love for me."

We praise God for all those who have decided to follow Jesus through baptism!

Message From Our President

MIKE EDGE

We Would See Jesus

Have you seen Jesus this week? Has the beauty, the love, the care and kindness of Jesus become more real? Through Christ-focused messages, the beauties of nature, and the sweet fellowship with other camp meeting attendees, it is our prayer that you have caught a glimpse of Jesus that will help shape your character to more closely reflect Jesus.

"The golden rule is the principle of true courtesy, and its truest illustration is seen in the life and character of Jesus. Oh, what rays of softness and beauty shone forth in the daily life of our Saviour! What sweetness flowed from His very presence! The same spirit will be revealed in His children. Those with whom Christ dwells will be surrounded with a divine atmosphere. Their white robes of purity will be fragrant with perfume from the garden of the Lord. Their faces will reflect light from His, brightening the path for stumbling and weary feet." Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing, 100-101.

Throughout this year I would invite you to keep looking at Jesus - to spend time with Him daily - dwell in His presence. As we draw closer to Him our lives will be shaped by Him, our life-witness will overflow with Christ's love, and others will be drawn to know and love him also.

Message From Our Treasurer

BRIAN STEPHAN

I pray that God has blessed your time here at camp meeting this year. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many volunteers and workers (janitors, kitchen, division leaders, camp staff, pastors, safety workers, medical team, camp office and of course our speakers) who make this camp meeting possible. May God continue to bless you in your walk with Him.

Question of the day

WHAT DID YOU LEARN AT CAMP MEETING THIS WEEK THAT IS GOING HOME WITH YOU?

- I learned many things, and I am grateful to be here. One thing that really stood out: to turn my eyes on Jesus every day. He is there for me all the time, and for you.

Jan Lanaville

- I am more on fire to deepen my relationship with the Lord.

Alex Roesler

- I am constantly amazed how much I can learn about Jesus love from a child. The loudest sermons can be spoken from the mouth of a child.

Author Unknown

- Learned how to play Pickleball!

Ryan Thompson and Jim Parish

- That whatever I do, I would see Jesus and others can see Jesus in me.

Alice Garrett

- The joy of seeing children learn more about Jesus.
