Camp Wakonda: Truly A Place Set Apart

Becca Cordwell has been coming to Camp Wakonda since she was a baby

I had the wonderful opportunity to volunteer at Wakonda during the first week of the Maranatha project. And wow, it was amazing seeing all these people come together for a project so big!

During the first couple of hours, we had buildings framed, walls sanded and ready for paint, and sticks piled high to be taken to the brush pile. We did everything from cosmetic work to putting walls up. Within the first two days we had some sad and depressing weather.
Between snow, sleet, and wind it was a little uncomfortable to be working outside.
Nevertheless, everyone's spirits were still high, and though it was cold outside, our hearts were warm.

When the days work was done, anybody with musical ability would gather around to sing praises to God. It was beautiful and uplifting to hear.

One of the awesome things I saw that week was how God's protection was over the camp.
No one had any major injuries, and He held off the worst of the weather from hitting the camp. All in all, it was incredibly inspiring, and I'm praying the rest of the project goes just as smoothly.

One of my earliest memories of Camp Wakonda is of pulling into the driveway. My favorite time of the year was camp meeting as a child. I love the smell of pine trees and fresh air, it feels like home.

I've been coming to camp meeting since I was a baby. I've also been to summer camp a couple years. This summer will be my second year as a staff member, and last year I had an amazing time. I loved every second of it! It had its ups and downs, but God pulled us all through it.

Camp Wakonda has been one of the most influential places in my life. I've made some of my best friends here. One of my favorite memories is when I was around 14 years old and I was offered an opportunity to help in the Primary Tent. I helped run the puppet show.
It was amazing because I remember watching the puppet show as an 8 year old and loving every second of it! So making it possible for other kids to enjoy it brought extra joy to me.

Camp Wakonda has been important to my family and me for many reasons. One is that we are able to leave behind all the struggles of the "real world" and enjoy the nature God has created for us, unplug from the news and social media, and most importantly, reconnect with God's presence. Wakonda is truly a place set apart.

“BUILDING OUR FUTURE” FINANCIAL UPDATE

We are so happy you are here at camp meeting! We want to give you a summary on the completed camp projects along with dollars spent to date.

Included in this summary is what we have raised so far for “Building Our Future.”

More information on projects yet to complete and the funds needed for that will be coming in a future Camp Lamp paper.

Our evening offerings during camp meeting will be earmarked for “Building Our Future” to help pay for these projects here at Camp Wakonda.

We are very grateful for all who have supported “Building Our Future,” both the donors and the many volunteers who have put countless hours toward these projects.
