Student Poems Tell of Jesus Love for Us

The Wisconsin Conference
Education Department held a poetry contest for all of our schools this year. The theme revolved around who Jesus is.
The categories were divided
based on grade level: K-4th, 5th-8th, and 9th-12th.

Included here are just a few of the many spectacular poems
submitted by our students!
Notice the first one is written in the shape of the cross!

If you want to see more of their poems, stop by the Little Red Schoolhouse for a display of their work.

Thank you for your continued prayer for all our schools and our teachers as they minister to our young people of Jesus'
great love for them!

Sue Nelson
Superintendent for Education

He Is..

Who is the creator of this world?

He is.

Who is love?

He is.

Who is light?

He is.

Who is the I am?

He is.

Who is my Savior?

He is.

Who is the Way?

He is.

He is the one that loves me.

Jesus Our Savior

Jesus paid
The ultimate Price for our

Life. He came to earth to save us first. He washed away our sin
To give us perfect peace within. He shines so bright like the stars
Of the night. He lived a perfect life of purity, for this is my surety.

For his name
Sake I am Saved. Our Life is like Pieces of a Puzzle we Can't fit in Without Him.

LAKE TO LAKE RUN IN THE RAIN

We woke up Wednesday to clouds and rain, but that didn't stop this year's cross campus runners! The goal, as always, is to be the first one to run from Mud Lake, across campus, through the trees and down the hill to Sandow Lake.

We had a record number of participants this year with a total of 81 runners! The youngest was 2 and the oldest was 78.

Top 3 Finishers:

1. River Piechowski 4:10
2. Josh Guerrero 4:12
3. John Ramsey 4:13

BIBLE ENIGMA 11

I, when forty years were ended/
I, when God Himself descended/
I, where shodding was suspended/
I was bright, but not expended

Hint: Exodus 3

BIBLE ENIGMA 12

I fall not, I flow not/ I simply appear/
A warm night, a cool blade/ And lo,
I am here!

Hint: Judges 6:33-40
