Welcome to

CAMP MEETING 2015!

Camp meeting is a special blend of Bible study, spiritual enrichment, family reunion, camping, and fellowship. We're glad that you have chosen to come this year.

As you look through this booklet you will see activities, meetings, and events for all ages and interests. In addition to the scheduled meetings, taught by over 30 presenters, we are offering a cholesterol profile screening, the Hallelujah Hustle, a special baptism, and a Sabbath concert by the Emmanuel Quartet.

This year our theme is SHINE. Whether your life is a candle, a lantern, an LED, or a spotlight, Jesus has called us to let our lights SHINE for Him. Through the preaching, fellowship, seminars, and other activities this week, we pray that you will be recharged, refueled, and refocused. Then, as you return home, may the Holy Spirit ignite you so that you SHINE brightly to neighbors, family, friends, and work associates.

May the Lord richly bless you this week.

Michael H. Edge

F. Brian Steyer

To do at Camp Meeting...

- Attend morning meetings
- Make appointment with Cindy Stephan
- Do my Will (finally!)

Including God's Church in your Will allows you to proclaim that for you, God is always part of the equation!

Things you should put in a Will:

- An Executor (who will administer your estate, take care of business details)
- An alternate executor (In case the executor can't or won't act in that capacity)
- Guardian for your children under age 18
- Consider all classes of beneficiaries (ex. children, a specific charity, etc)
- How much each individual, charity, etc is to receive (percentage or fraction terms are best)

Adventist Youth

The love of Christ constrains us all

Pathfinders & Adventurers are church-centered spiritual recreational-activity programs designed to lead our Adventist youth to a closer walk with Jesus through hands on training. Find a club near you. Go to wi.adventist.org/youth or contact Greg Taylor at gtaylor@wi.adventist.org.

True education means more than the pursual of a certain course of study. It means more than a preparation for the life that now is. It has to do with the whole being, and with the whole period of existence possible to man. It is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers. It prepares the student for the joy of service in this world and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come. Education p 13

Adventist Education
A Journey to Excellence

The longer children remain in Adventist Education, the higher their average achievement and the more likely they stay in the church. Visit the Little Red School House to learn more about how Adventist Education can provide an opportunity for our children to know Jesus as their personal Savior and prepare them for a lifetime of service.

November 13-15, 2015

NESTOR SORIANO

1982- 2002: I was born into a Seventh-day Adventist (SDA) family. My great-grandmother, one of the first SDA's in my family tree, lived with my family for most of my childhood and played a pivotal role in my spiritual development. I attended North Shore Junior Academy from Kindergarten to 10th grade. In the fifth grade, I decided to be baptized.

2002: I drifted from God during my teenage years. Then two old friends came to my home one evening and shared how Jesus radically changed their lives. They invited me to a series of revival meetings. While attending those meetings, I fell in love with Jesus, and was born again.

2003-2004: I took a break from school and worked as a full-time literature evangelist in Chicago. My faith and trust in the Lord skyrocketed. Attending an evangelistic series I was re-baptized in the winter of 2003.

2005-2007: In the spring of 2005, I returned to school at Andrews University. I intended to study business, but sensing God's call to study religion, I switched majors shortly thereafter. I joined a team of students to preach an evangelistic series in Zimbabwe, Africa, and was assigned to preach in an SDA elementary and high school. Exactly 100 young people were baptized at those meetings. I began to sense God's call to gospel ministry. During my senior year I served as the Religious Vice-President for the Student Association. While I was a student, I gave Bible studies to two young people and had the privilege of witnessing their baptisms before graduating with a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Religion in 2007.

2007-2010: I was invited by the Wisconsin Conference to serve as a youth and associate pastor in Madison. I accepted the call and served alongside Pastor William Ochs at Madison East Church. It was here that God's call to gospel ministry became clear to me. I ministered to youth of all ages. I gave baptismal Bible studies to students at our church school (Three Angels Christian School). I also preached my second evangelistic series in the spring of 2010.

I became friends with several Adventist students and we started an Adventist club at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. The students planned and held events and led Friday night Bible studies. After giving Bible studies I had the privilege of baptizing four students.

I first met Katherine in 2007 while she was a student at the university. She was a committed SDA Christian and supportive leader and we enjoyed serving together in the public campus ministry and church. We began our relationship in 2009. She moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan for work in the summer of 2010. Fortunately, I moved to Berrien Springs, Michigan (about 100 miles away from Grand Rapids) to study at the seminary a few months later.

2010-2013: The Wisconsin Conference sponsored me as a student at the Andrews University Theological Seminary. I served alongside Pastor Dan Rachor as a student intern pastor in two churches (Wyoming and Bauer SDA churches) in the Grand Rapids area. Katherine and I gave Bible studies to a middle school student by the name of Kimberly. She was baptized in January of 2012. During my last semester of seminary in 2013, I preached in an evangelistic series in Grand Rapids. About 10 people made decisions to be baptized at those meetings.

2013-Present: I was invited to pastor in a four-church district in the Portage area of Wisconsin and began in May of 2013. Katherine and I enjoyed serving together in ministry. We also sensed God's leading in our relationship. On July 7, 2013, we became husband and wife.

For the past two years, Katherine and I have had the opportunity to serve in the Portage District. We love our members and are blessed by their love, support, and commitment to God. Katherine and I are committed to God's call in our lives. May His grace sustain us, and may we be found faithful when Jesus comes again.

MYOUNG KWON

I am a preacher's kid. When Mom married Dad, she had a medical condition that would prevent her from having children. Even so, Mom did get pregnant, but due to her medical conditions, the health provider recommend not giving birth. My parents were determined to keep the child. Mom went into the mountains to be in nature and pray during her whole time of pregnancy. While she was praying, she made a vow in a similar way that Hannah made for her son Samuel. Mom prayed that she would raise her first child to become a pastor. Thus, I was born.

When I finished high school it seemed obvious to me I should take Theology at Sahmyook University in Korea. However, during my freshman and sophomore years there, I began to question whether it was my choice to become a pastor or if it was simply my parent's choice and influence. I was confused, but did not know what I really wanted to do if I didn't become a pastor.

After my sophomore year, it was time for me to join the Korean Army.

Two years are mandatory for all Korean men. I wanted to take a break before going to the army. I needed an excuse so I could get permission from Dad to take a break, so I told him I wanted to be a Bible worker. God led me to Melbourne, Australia, and the few months of experience I had there changed me. I learned the joy of sharing Jesus and saving souls for Jesus. I witnessed secular people being totally changed when they accepted Jesus. I couldn't believe it. This practical experience during my short time in Australia taught me more than I ever learned in my two years of college classes.

This was truly an eye opening experience for me. Jesus opened my eyes to see the joy of serving Him in full time ministry. It's like that passage from Matthew 20:32-34, "So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, 'What do you want Me to do for you?' They said to Him, 'Lord, that our eyes may be opened.' So Jesus had compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him." It was then I knew that I wanted to follow Jesus for the rest of my life, serving Him just as the blind man did when his eyes were opened.

When I returned to Korea, I served as an assistant chaplain in the Korean Army. Once I fulfilled my military duty, I returned to school to finish my junior and senior year of college. From there, I went on to the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University to earn my M.Div.

After graduating from the Seminary in 2011, God led me to be the associate (youth) pastor at the Rosemead Korean Church in the Southern California Conference. I got to work with the teens and the youth of the church by worshiping together, having Bible studies, and just witnessing how these youth can fall in love with Jesus and be changed by Jesus for the better. In the fall of 2013, God called me to serve in the Superior District of Wisconsin Conference.

In the meantime, God allowed me a suitable wife to do ministry with. Hye Mi is more than what I could have ever asked for, and I am thankful to her for her love and commitment to ministry. In addition, God has given a beautiful addition to our family, our daughter, Sebin.

I am encouraged by the words of Paul that he wrote for Timothy: "Preach the Word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." 2 Timothy 4:2,5

I WANT TO LET MY Light SHINE

Matthew 5:16

I want to let my light shine,
So that everyone can see
That the things I do,
I do because of what Jesus did for me.

When I can't find an answer
to a problem that I face,
If I don't know which way to go
when I've got a choice to make,
I just put my trust in Jesus,
who has set all people free.
By his perfect life, His sacrifice,
He gives me all I need.

I want to let my light shine,
So that everyone can see
That the things I do,
I do because of what Jesus did for me.
